MANY FACES OF LHS

Bright faces and big smiles are far from few as senior students crowd the familiar hallways, facing another day in high school. . .one day closer to the future.

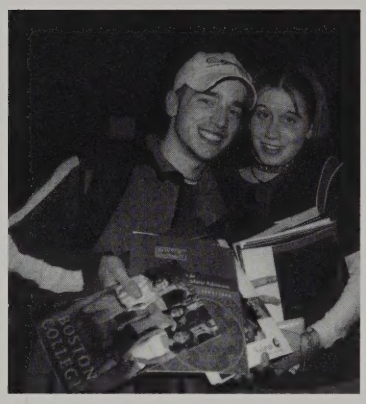
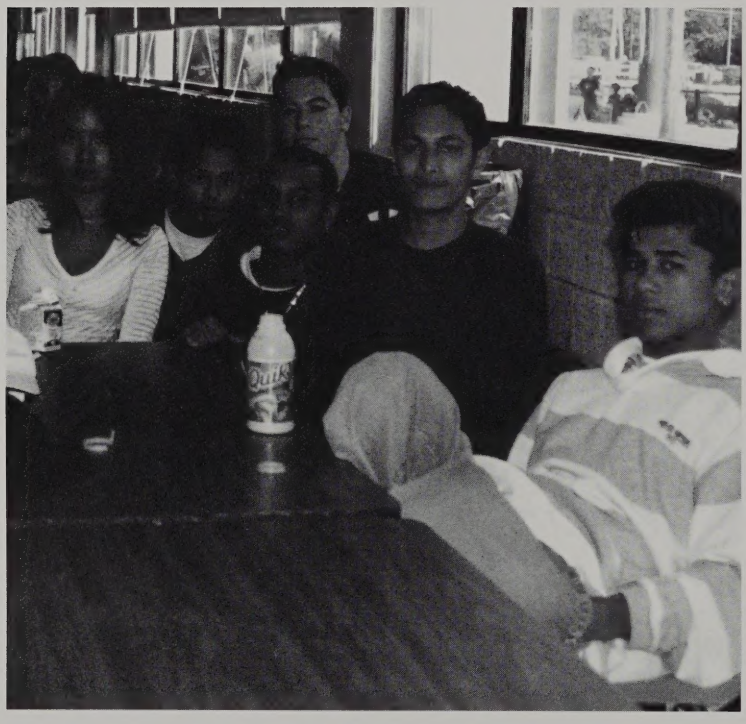
HOW YOUNG WE ARE

Orientation on the first day of school included a cook-out at Boarding House Park. These students enjoy the bright sun and meeting new people.

CHOICES, CHOICES

With their arms full of college information, Dan Hall and Gillian Nolan gather important applications at the Merrimack Valley College Fair.





LUNCH TIME

Eating, relaxing, and gossiping with friends are the top choices among seniors for spending their 25 minute lunches.

DANCING QUEEN

Primarily for juniors, the Harvest was the hottest ticket in the house to get. Katie Monaghan, Susie Sawyer, and Katie Dolan were among the 600+ students who attended.

Student Life

Crowded Tunnels

Pom poms and face paint are no stranger to James Blair, a 1998 graduate. In hopes that others follow his lead, he returned for homecoming activities, as always, dressed in school spirit.

We have learned that there is more to student life than spending 6 hours a day in a classroom. On our first day of school, the school seemed so big. Sophomore year we enjoyed not being freshman, and our very own sophomore social. As we turned 16, making money and jobs we had became a major part of our lives. We took part in a new homecoming tradition, complete with a float parade and pep rally. Senior year opened our eyes to our final moments at LHS.

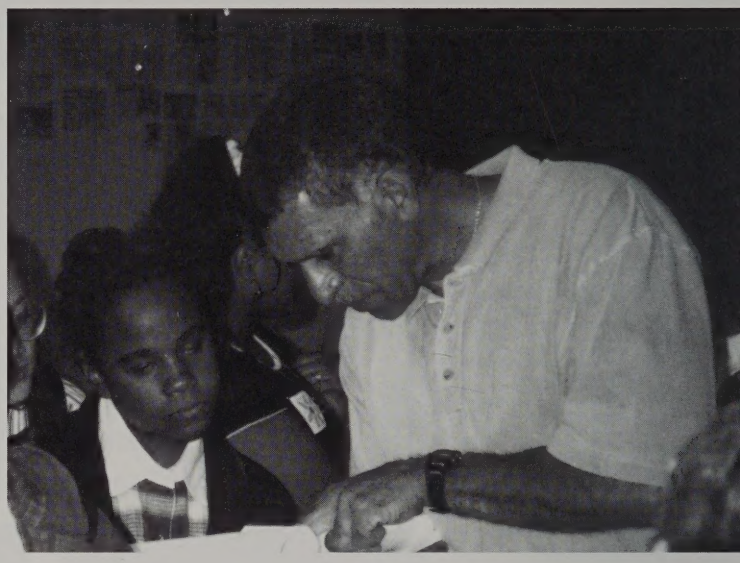
IF I ONLY KNEW THEN WHAT I KNOW NOW

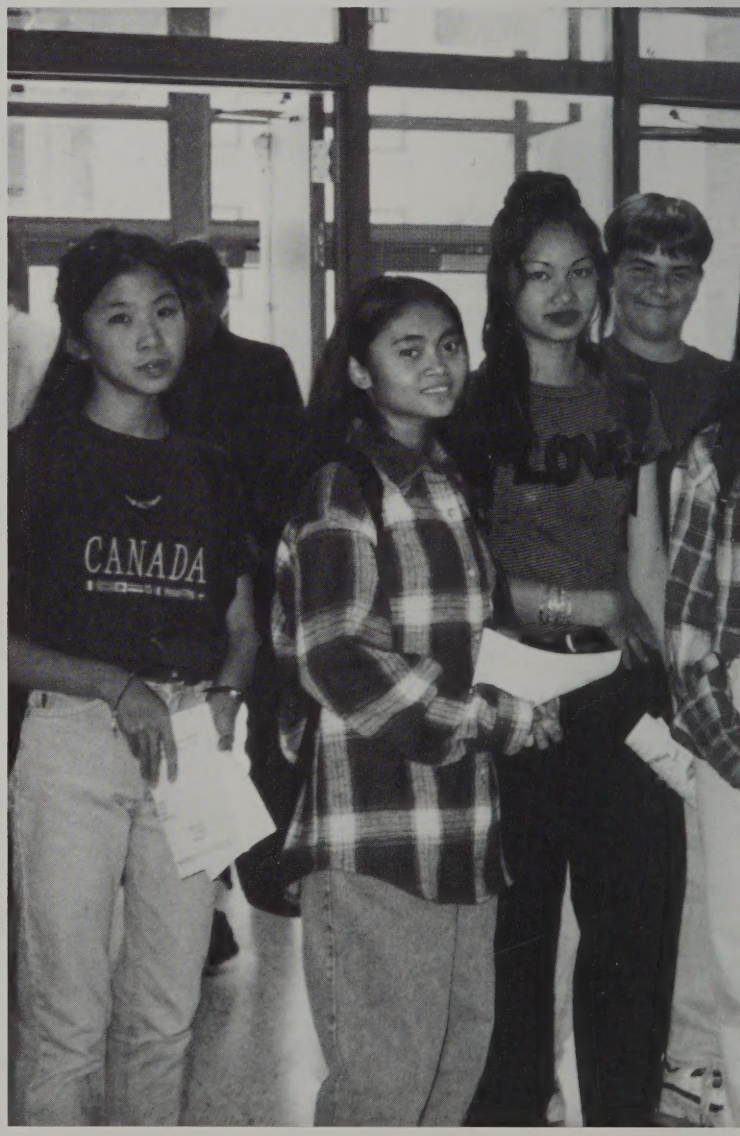
Have as much fun as possible and meet as many people as you can while in high school. If you don't try to meet people and have fun, then when you are older and look back you will wish that you didn't let life pass you by. Underclassmen should know that they should study sometimes but also have fun because grades aren't everything. You could be the smartest person in the school but have no friends and realize that high school was awful because you had no fun. Chris Espinola

A FLOWERING MOMENT After school activities were a spotlight during lunch. These students created beautiful flowers supplied by the International Language Club--Spanish Chapter.

THE WAITING GAME Waiting in the lobby of the fieldhouse, these freshman wonder what is in store for the next four years. Traveling throughout the school building was a large task for some to handle.

WHERE DO I GO NOW? If finding your way around school wasn't hard enough, figuring out your schedule was even worse. This student gets assistance from a helpful teacher.





OUTSIDE FUN
On the first day of school, freshman were invited to a cookout at Boarding House Park. Little did we know what school lunches were really like.

HOW CUTE WE LOOK
Enjoying free time to see the different areas of the school, Katie Dolan, Angelike Quintero, Hue Nguyen, and Susan Wedge venture through the cafeteria.

WHERE TO NEXT?
After lunch, Crystal Garcia and Alicia Grand take time out to talk about their classes. Getting acquainted with classmates seemed to be the task at hand for most students.

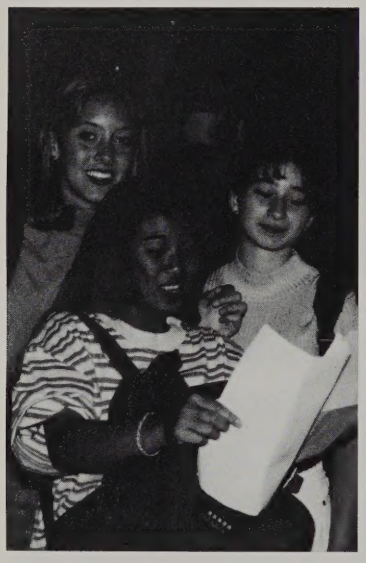
LET THE FUN BEGIN
To welcome freshman and all students back to school, Student Government sponsored the first dance of the school year. This group of freshman take time from dancing to smile for the camera!

WHERE IS EVERYONE ELSE?
With over 900 freshman invading the high school, Laura Lamarche, Jennie Espinola, and Beth Huesgen look for all their friends in the crowd of people.

SCHOOL DAZE
Taking time out from activities at Boarding House Park are Susan Wedge, Colleen Janeiro, Erica Haas, Jill Cohn, and Kara Sargent.

LUNCH LINES AS USUAL
Little did these unsuspecting students know that lines during lunch are always long. You better get used to it now, it will last for four years!

DO WE HAVE CLASS TOGETHER
Checking who we have for a teacher is a priority for most students. However Erin Draper, Judy Phothimath, and Stephanie Papadopoulos are checking to see if they have class together.



FLASHBACK

ENJOYING THE LAST DAYS OF S U N S H I N E
Out in the bright sun, this student shows his dancing skills with his buddies looking on. Fun in the sun didn't last too long as classes began in full force.

First Days at LHS
August 1995

Q: How different is LHS now compared to your first day here?

A: The renovations to the school, including lockers and hallways make the school a lot better to be in.
Juan "JC" Rivera

A: The school is cleaner than before.
Rebecca DeMange

A: More computer labs
Norma Torres

A: Looks much cleaner, better lockers.
Rachel Mitchell

A:School itself was easier back as a freshman.
Ram Lam

Q: Were you nervous your first day at LHS, why?

A: Not really, it didn't bother me to come here. The school was just bigger, but it was no big deal.
Tim Lewis

A: Yes, I was afraid I would get lost, I woke up early to get ready. I didn't sleep.
Sopheap Pan

Q: What did you think about your first day at LHS?

David Le: "I got lost!"
Nancy Mok: "Boring"
Chanda Duong: "Fun!"
Daynise Gonzalez: "I didn't know anyone, and I got lost!"

GETTING TO KNOW YOU
"I haven't seen you all summer!" was the topic of conversation for most kids during the first week of lunches together.

NO CUTTING THE LINE
During the short lunch, students get used to waiting in line for their lunch.

Let's Be Sociable!

Franciscan Center

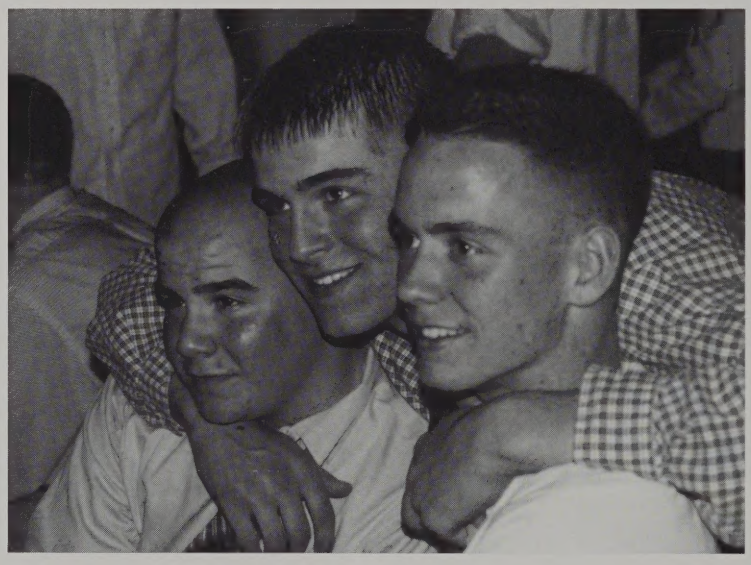
Andover, MA

Friday, April 11

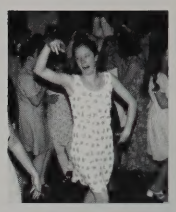
7 - 11 p.m.

Immediately we were drawn into the flash of 300 different cameras, the kind of music that put a smile on everyone's face. Within a few minutes we were all drawn to the dance floor and squeezed between friends to just laugh away the kind of night none of us would forget. A class so tight and bonded, this showed just how close we really were. When the night ended, all of us dispersed into a thousand different directions, yet we all ended up at the same place to tell of the favorite parts of the night. Tiffany Perry, Class of 1999

OH, SO CUTE! Who knew these tough guys could dress up and look so darn charming? Sophomores DaveDuquette and Tim Whalen get a great big hug from friend James Cardaci. Whether you went solo or with a date, the Social was the highlight event for most students. This was the first opportunity for underclassmen to have a special dance event of their own.



SAY SOCIAL! Sophomores Meredith Brouillard, Maricela Garcia, Christine Connerton, and Lauren Clark grab a group shot while others bust a move on the Franciscan Center's dance floor. The night seemed to be over in a flash but we all got to have tons of fun taking millions of pictures with friends and dates, dancing to all the great music and eating the decent food.



Katie Provencher attempts to break it down on the dance floor as others look on wondering what she was actually trying to do. As you can see, she enjoyed boogying with friends all night.

Twinkle toes, (OG) Chanta Vieng said of the ladies, "I like to dance with all the pretty girls." He can be found dancing at all of the formal and informal dances. He prefers the formal dances because everyone looks so nice.

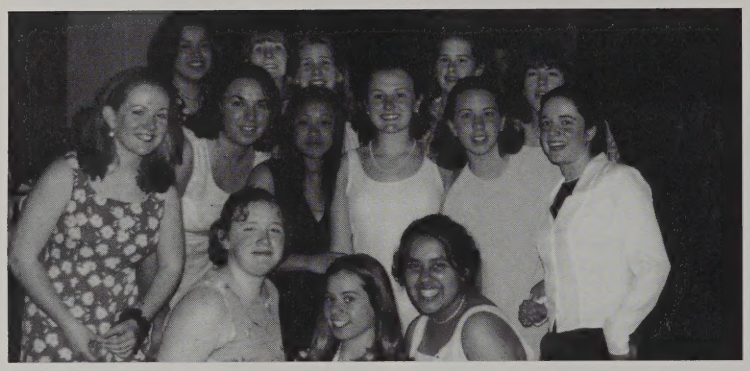
WHO BROUGHT THE COOL GUYS?

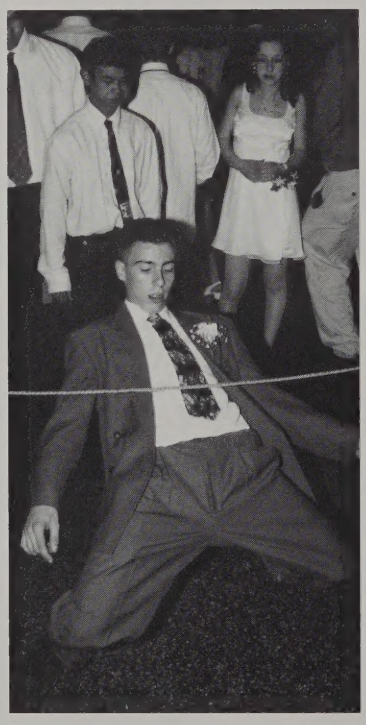
No, social dates were not screened before the dance. Chris Espinola, Pat Swett '98, Brian Duffy '98, Justin Sullivan, Pat Donavan, and Dan Tobin show us their unusual sense of style.

THUMBS UP FOR THE SOCIAL!

Some of us knew we would have more fun with just our friends. These sophomore girls look to be having a great time as they smile for what was no doubt one of the many pictures taken that spring evening.

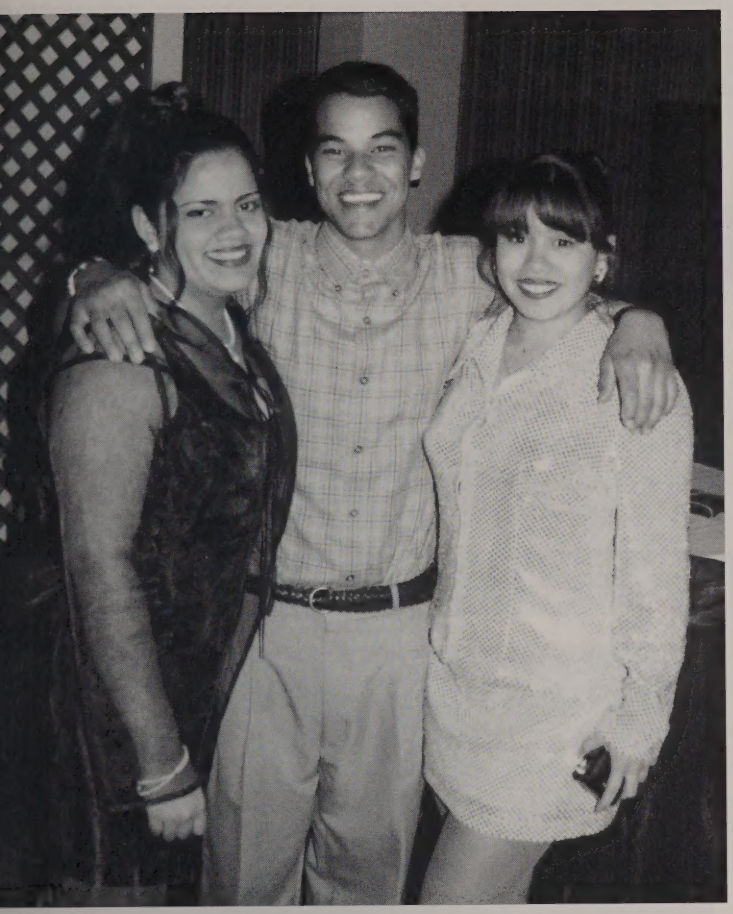
SCANNING THE DANCE FLOOR
Breaking through the crowded floor forced most people to bump all night. These girls step aside so Joyelle Parent can strut her stuff. Over 400 sophomores squeezed onto the dance floor.





> My sister helped me get ready for the social. I thought I looked great, but I look back now and wonder what could I have been thinking!
> Angela Bradley, Class of 1999

A COUPLE OF SOPHOMORES
Most students managed to find a date by 2 p.m. that Friday afternoon. Asking someone to go with you was the hardest part of the whole dance. Waiting for the date to arrive made everyone nervous.



LUCKY, LUCKY!
With two beautiful girls by his side, what guy wouldn't be smiling. Diliana Dejesus, Henry Cordero, and Aida Martinez strike their best pose and enjoy the rest of the evening with friends.

> "What made the social so great was that everyone was there. Juniors, Seniors, and even people that graduated a few years before, showed up to see people."
> Anonymous, Class of 1999

SILK FLOWERS
Filene's and Macy's had an abundance of dresses for girls to sort thru. Susie Sawyer, Jen Stotz, and Michele LaRose show off their picks accompanied by the little white sweater. Some misguided girls spent over $200 for their dresses. What a shame!

Merrimack Valley College Fair

Why did you come to the college fair?

"To get more insight in the colleges that I'm interested in and to narrow down my choices."

Melinda Chan

"Just looking at the different colleges."

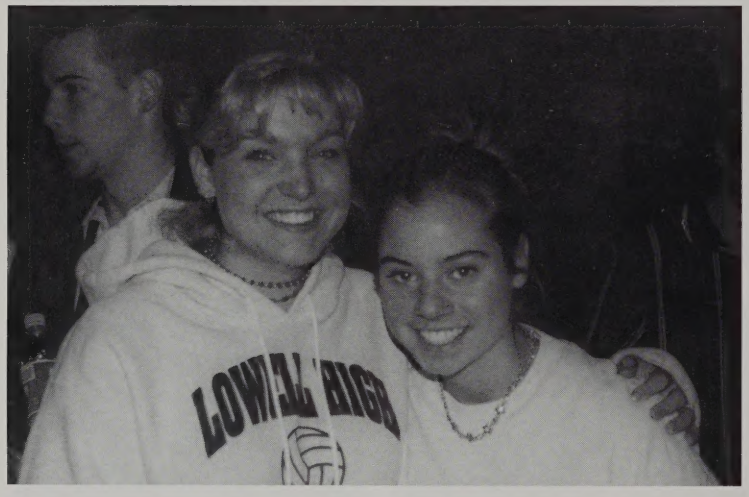
Daniel Simmons

"To check out the colleges and to meet new people."

Chinda Loeum

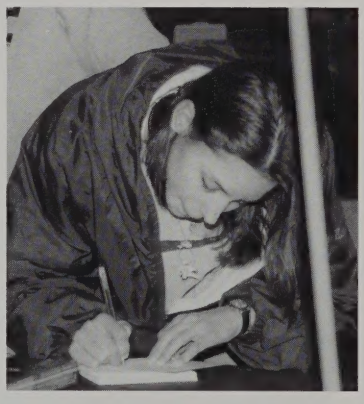
" I came to find more information on colleges. I found it to be very infor mational."

Peter Ilchuk



HANGING OUT
Looking for the right college can be lots of fun with your friends. Seniors Suzanne Drew and Laura Ninteau enjoy the excitement of college hunting.

SIGN UP
Preparing for the future Junior Michelle Vieira is getting all the information she can before her senior year arrives.



COLLECTING DATA
With the pressure of finding all the data you can, seniors Josh Fernandez and David Robinson look like they are trick or treating by filling their bags with college information.

BREAK TIME
To get some relief from the stress seniors stop to take time to socialize College representatives took time to speak with students from 10 surrounding communities.

THE LAST HURRAH

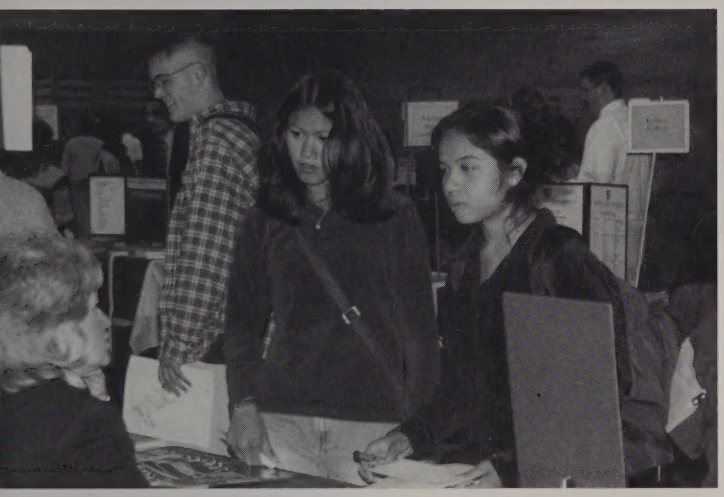
Smiling ear to ear these students look toward the future. Vanessa Donnelly, Lauren Clark, and Beth McDermott express their thrill at the thought of going to college.

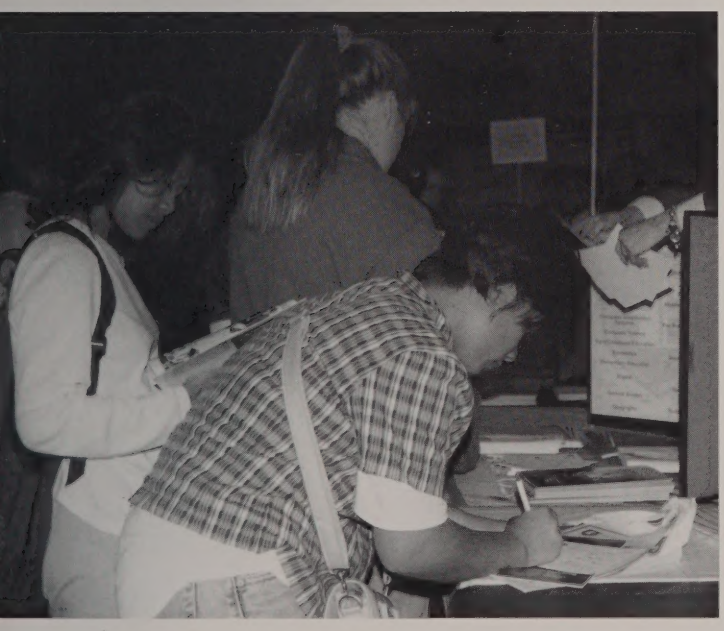
CATALOG HUNTING

Looking through a variety of catalogs the representatives had to offer came as no surprise to many students who attended the college fair as juniors. Filling in your address came natural.

WHERE ARE YOU GOING?

Students found time to talk with friends, college reps, banks, and military personnel on hand for the fair. The big question: "Where should I go to school?"





APPLICATIONS GALORE

Finding interesting colleges is on the mind of many students around this time of year. The college fair is the premiere fair where students can come to see over 120 schools showplaced in one area. It is easier to have the school come to you!

DO YOU HAVE A PEN?

Having a cramp in your hand would not be uncommon after traveling through the dozen of tables at the fair. Filling out the information cards was a tiresome process.

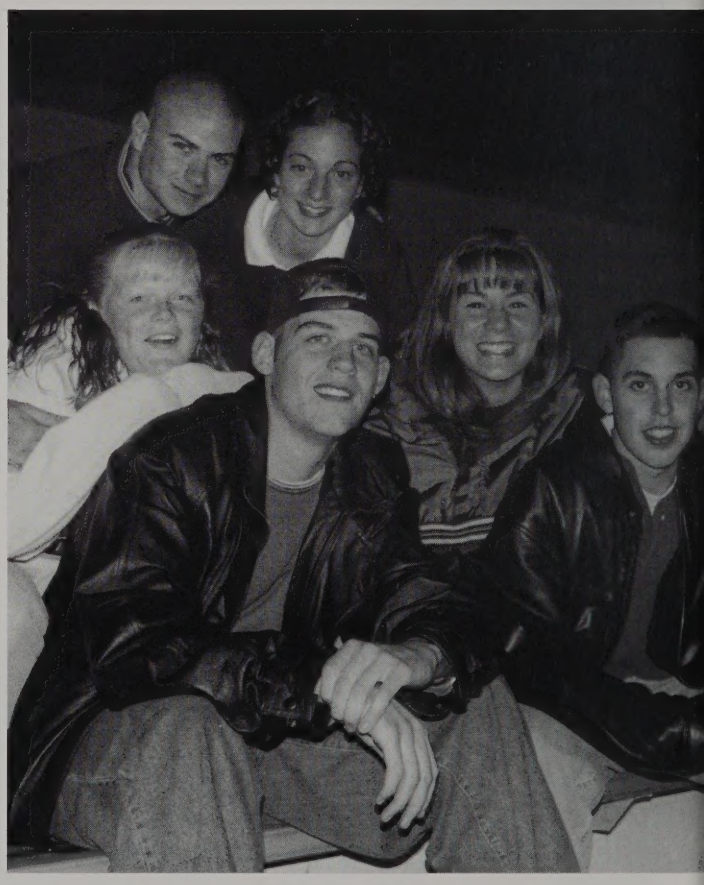
Lowell Beats Tewksbury!

Student Body Celebrates Homecoming Activities 1998

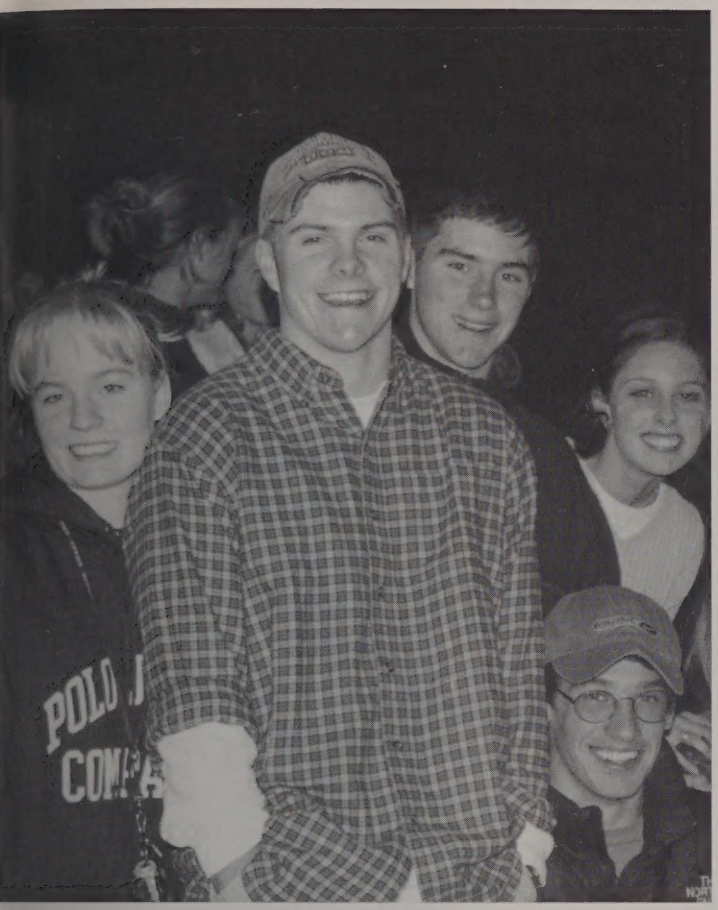
THE QUEEN & HER COURT
LHS Homecoming Queen Erin Draper is surrounded by candidates Loraine Rodriguez, Kimly Sroy, Katie Daly, and Deanna Hamel.

THE BAND PLAYS ON
During halftime of the game, the band performed "James Bond Themes" under the direction of Drum Major Katie Rene and Band Director David Keefe.

FREEZING IN THE STANDS
To support the winning tradition of Lowell High Football, Rosalyn Pen, Alton Phouvong, Richie Dunning, and Peter Song snuggle close to keep warm.



SMILING SENIORS
Enjoying a night of festivities, Doug Mitchell, Greg McKiel, Christie Rector, Laura Lamarche, Tim Bugler, and Jennie Espinola take time out to smile.



GRIN & BEAR IT On a cold night, Katie Rodger, Dan Tobin, Bill Bukala, Kaitlin Ryder, and Andrew Gilmore support their favorite team and homecoming candidates.

WHO'S NUMBER ONE? Enthusiastic cheerleaders Bridgette McDermott, Kim Mello, and Lindsay Davis show the crowd who is number one!

CORE 6 LET'S GO RAIDERS On their way to victory, the offensive ne set up for their next play against ne Tewksbury Redmen. Lowell's ffense held off the Redmen attack!

DURING HALF-TIME, HOMECOMING QUEEN ERIN DRAPER AND MR. FOOTBALL TIM WHALEN RESPRESENT THE STUDENT BODY.

Lowell 15, Tewksbury 14! The highlight of homecoming activities was the victory over Tewksbury. Lowell had previously been unsuccessful in beating Tewksbury during the past 4 years.

Queen Elections! With only senior girls eligible for this distinction, the student body voted over three days in the cafeteria. The top five candidates were recognized and Erin Draper was crowned at the football game.

Mr. Football! A tradition among football players, voting for this notable honor is held prior to the festivities. Only senior players are eligible for the award. Tim Whalen was the 1998 recepient; he received the Silver Football.

Thank you, Ms. G! Despite not having a Pep Club Advisor, homecoming activities went off without a hitch. Ms. G. was still able to organize festivities even though she was on a leave of absence. One disappointment was the missing float parade and dance.

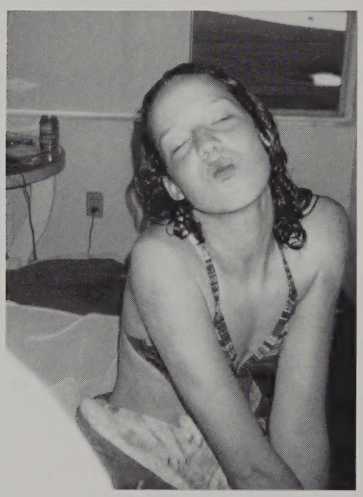
Enjoying the sunshine, being with friends, and working hard, were just some of the things we did to keep busy during

Summer Before Senior Year

SCIENCE BUFFS
Visiting the Museum of Science, Jimmy Mailea, Stacey Regan, Gillian Nolan and Dan Hall missed the Beastie Boys laser show…so they saw the rest of the museum instead.

PUCKER UP!
Fun in the sun was just what many seniors needed before hitting the books again. Jessica Shepard relaxes after a tough day at Salisbury Beach.



HUGS FOR FRIENDS
Enjoying a camping weekend getaway in Greenland, New Hampshire, Erica Haas and Cheryl Vigeant share a laugh and hugs.

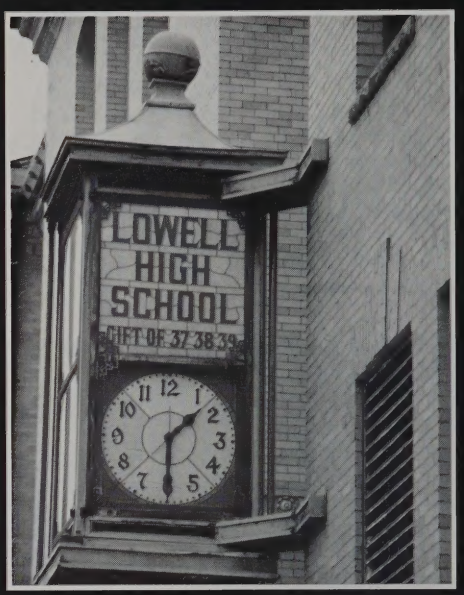
SUMMER LOVIN'
Going to friends houses is one way to relax during the hot summer months. Brendan Meade, Kara Sargent, Peter Martin, and Jill Cohn spent many good times together.

P H I S H I N
Attending concerts was another popular choice of seniors. Sarah Toop and Katie Monaghan enjoy themselves at the Lemonwheel, a three-day Phish concert.

SURROUNDED BY BEAUTIES
Pat Donovan laughs as Kaitlyn Ryder, Justin Sexton, Katie Rodger, and Ellen Romanowsky spend time together. What is that in your ear Pat?

LAST DAY OF JUNIOR YEAR
Gathered to celebrate the beginning of the summer, Jessica Shepard, Jessica Stepney, Amanda Rushton, Melissa Ilg, and Rob Pitkin look over the 98 Spindle.

BIG WINTER COATS?
Are you sure it's summer time Angela Bradley, Alexandra Maraganis, and Elena Ansara, or is it February 25?



STUDENT FOR HIRE

"I can't help it, tomorrow is pay day," a statement true for many seniors. Rushing from school to a job just to have money for fun and for the future.

GARAGE TRAFFIC

After a long day, students head to the garage and hop into their cars to enjoy the rest of the afternoon.

Where Does the Time Go?

6:25 Beep...beep...beep...Time to get ready...no five more minutes. Brushing teeth = fresh breath...a must. Shower...maybe. Breakfast...if I have time.

7:05-7:40 Start the car...ah, my homework is on my desk. Yellow light...floor it. Red light...almost made it...traffic...let's get moving people! Parking...this is going to be a fight. Homeroom...I'm saved by the bell.

7:45-8:33 English...to be or not to be...no that's Shakespeare...I'm studying Beowolf.

8:38-9:26 Spanish...yo queiro Taco Bell!

9:31-10:18 Calculus...a pop quiz, I'm not ready, I didn't study last night.

10:18-10:43 Is it too early for lunch?

10:43-11:33 Office Intern...time to catch up on Physics.

11:33-1:13 UMass Class...this is not like high school.

1:13-2:05 Physics, when does the madness stop!

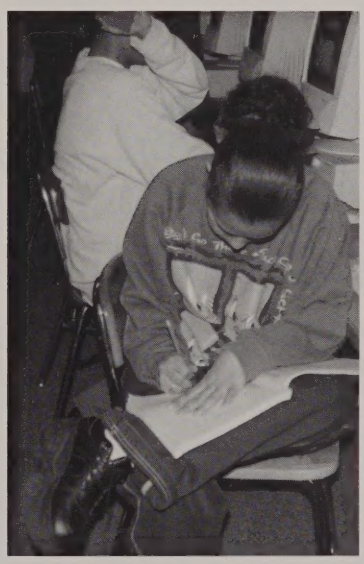
2:05-4:30 Activities/Practice/Work...time to get involved.

4:30-8:30 Dinner, TV, Snack.

8:30-11:30 Homework, study, study.

MVPs OF LHS
Dedication and effort paid off for these fall athletes. They took home the big trophy in recognition of their time and energy.

STUDY...STUDY...STUDY
During one class, seniors often finish their homework for an upcoming class. Pressure to get things done makes for busy students!



I SEE YOU SO OFTEN
The staff of LHS, what would we do without them? We spend more time with them than we do our own families.

Jobs We Have

$$$$$$

The Green Stuff

The green stuff. We all know what it is and we all need it. Some need it to support their cars and social life. Some say work makes you responsible, but we don't work for responsibility; we work for the green stuff to pay the bills and to have fun with friends.

HELPING CUSTOME
Chris Mireault enjoys his work he ing customers. If a customer ha question, he is more than willing answer it for them. The best part his job is working with othe

MAKING BAKED GOODS
Baking for customers is all too familiar for Dan Bowles. The Bakery Department at Market Basket is always filled with fresh pastries thanks to hard working students like Dan.

SMILING ON THE JOB
Checking out customers while supervisor Dave Robbins looks on, Vanessa Donnelly is all smiles. Vanessa works to pay for athletic expenses; Dave enjoys working with friends.

SINGING ON THE JOB David Le works hard shagging carriages. He enjoys meeting new people and earning money to go out with friends. To pass the time away, David sings to himself when he gets bored.

DOWN IN THE DUMPS Working isn't always fun as Angela Bradley looks down while pulling the cart to restock the shelves. "The best part of working is getting time and a half on Sundays," commented Angela.

ORKING TO SAVE FOR COLLEGE pending money on weekends is only art of the battle. Students like Woo ang must save to pay for their col-ge education. Unfortunately, Woo pent his last day working at larshalls in October.

I Quit

Most students go from job to job for numerous reasons. "I hate doing the same thing every night," said Dan Normandin about his job. Dan complained about his boss and the low wages that he receives for all the hard work he puts in. Most students work over 20 hours a week, a lot of hours to work especially when you are in school.

LET THE GAMES BEGIN

Powdered and primped people enter the Harvest ready for a night of fun. Couples were greeted at the door by Mrs. Fineman & Mr. B.

NEW DANCE MOVES

Enjoying the music, seniors Kelly McLaughlin and Jen Mapes move to the rhythm. The dance floor was packed with energetic party goers.

LOOK OUT LADIES

Giving their best G.Q. model impression, seniors posed for the camera. These dapper fellows then proceeded back to their ladies for a few more dances.

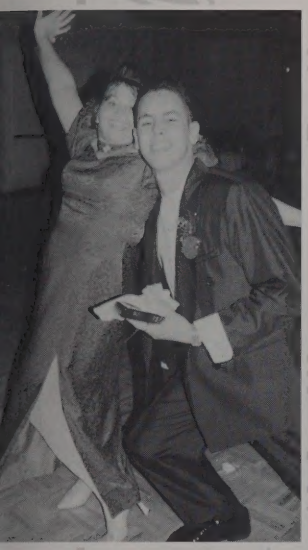
TWICE THE FUN

Doubling the fun, this lovely lady gives two men the pleasure of her company. The night was full of fun and festivities for all.

DIAL 1 - 800 - H E L P

Making that last call, senior Alicia Grand is caught on the phone. We would all like to know who's ear she was burning on the other end!

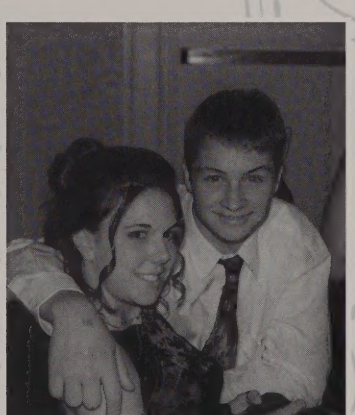
TA DA!
Dancing until dawn, this couple made quite an exit. Couples had so much fun that when the night was over they didn't want to leave.



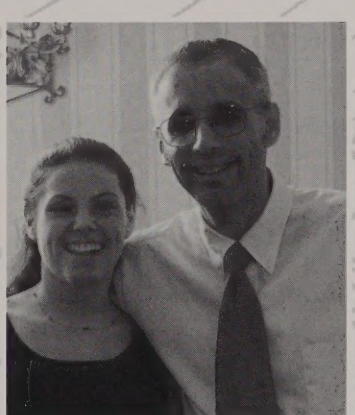
LETS PUT OUR FEET UP
Relaxing for a moment, couples sit to chat. It was a night of stress free fun after a full week of school.

Put On Your Dancing Shoes!
Harvest 97-98

The Harvest was a BIG deal, forget about preparing for 2 months, it was more like 5 or 6 months. I escaped school early, because of a hair appointment. After an hour of sitting in a chair and having some lady pick at my curls, I hated my hair; of course I ended up crying out of frustration. My mother came in to save the day and brought her best friend, an expert in fixing hair messes. After an hour, my hair looked semi-decent enough for viewing. My date picked me up at 6 and we took millions of pictures. The Harvest ended up being the worst date I of my life. My date didn't dance and I paid for everything, right down to Bickfords afterwards. Needless to say, my night did not turn out as good as I had expected, but I had fun with my friends and that is what really mattered! -- Jessica Shepard

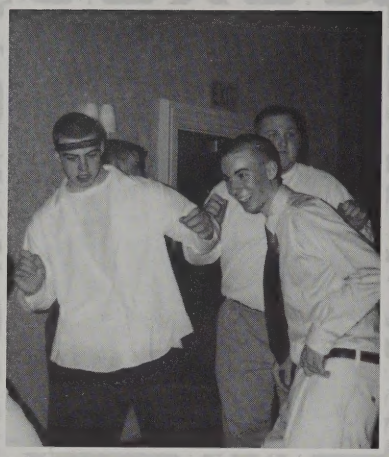


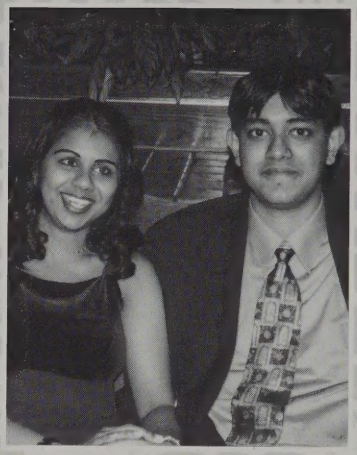
S M I L E
With happy expressions, senior Dan Kelleher and junior Rebecca Marr smile for the camera. It was a magical night for singles and couples alike.

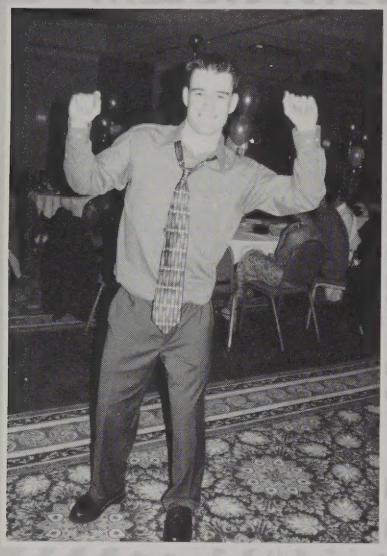


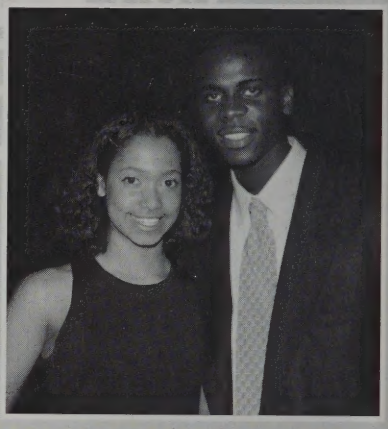
GOT A MINUTE
Posing with her favorite teacher, Casey Burgett and Mr. Boliantes smile for the camera. Teachers enjoyed the dance as much as the students.

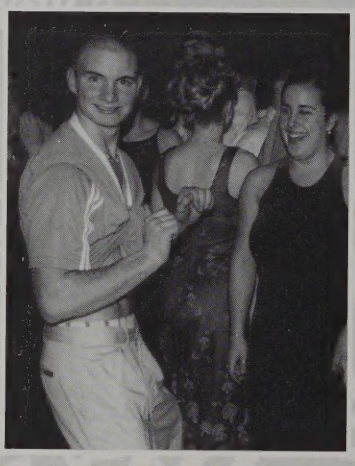
PICTURE PERFECT
Holding each other tight, senior Melissa Ilg and junior Robert Pitkin sway to the music. Romance left its' mark on the dance floor that night.











This was the first year for the Senior Snowball. In the past, juniors and seniors attended the Harvest together; it was cramped but they all fit! Finding a place big enough to hold everyone was a problem. In order to accommodate everyone, tickets went on sale to juniors first; immediately selling out. There was no way to fit anyone else in the hall. At first the seniors were going to have to wait until the prom. But, people got upset because many seniors had already bought dressses and lined up dates. At this point Senior Suzanne Drew decided she would take matters into her own hands. She continually asked Mrs. Fineman for a senior dance and she didn't back down until Mrs. Fineman gave in. The dance was given a name and since it was scheduled for January, the Senior Snowball fit perfectly.

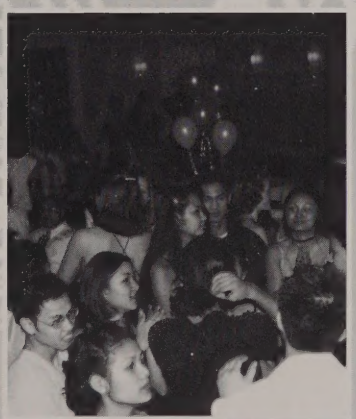
There were mixed emotions in the senior class; some were excited that they could wear their dresses, others said, "Why bother, just wait for the prom." But those who attended agreed...the night was a success! Our thanks to Mrs. Fineman for giving us our own Harvest.

Senior Snowball 1999

A BRIGHT IDEA
Senior Suzanne Drew is pictured here with her date Mike. She came up with the idea for the Snowball and took action hounding Mrs. Fineman until she agreed.

EVERYONE SQUISH IN
Party-goers took a minute to step into the hallway for a memorable group photo. Friends enjoyed spending time together and dancing all night.

CAPTURE THE MOMENT
Smiling happily, seniors Mary Downing, Jessica Stepney, and Jessica Shepard enjoyed the night with their friends. The night was full of music, dancing, and the flash of cameras.



FREEZE FRAME
Laughing and dancing, the crowd utilized all of the dance floor. Once the music started there wasn't a moment when the floor was empty.

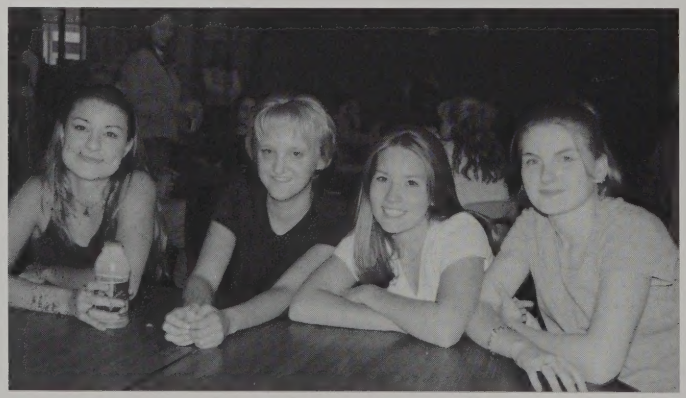
Hanging around the Lunch Room

TABLE TALK

Hanging out with friends Donald Fluery, Jessica Johnson, Katie Dolan, Jen Lenzi, Alyssa McNeil, Kelly McLaughlin, Yovani Baez, and Craig Archambault enjoy their lunch during Mod 13. The only regret is that because it is the last lunch of the day, there are slim pickings in the food lines. Katie Dolon commented, "We are the only seniors during this period."

SPORTS TALK

Friday table talk usually consisted of the football players celebrating that they don't have afternoon practice. The remainder of the week students had to listen to the players complain about practice, as stated by one undisclosed source. Together are friends Brendan Meade, Dan Brennan, Adam Michaud, Bill Bukala, Pat Donovan, Dan Malavich, Ronnie McCarron, Richie Jeffers, Kevin Richardson, Chris Espinola.



TALK TIME

Being with friends to catch up on the day's activities is what the majority of students do during their 25 minute time. Jessica Johnson, Lori King, Christine Connerton, and Lisa Hannigan wait for the bell to ring to move to their next class.

Lunch Bunches

Some time between Mod 7 (10:18) and Mod 13 (1:13), students get 25 minutes to enjoy the perfect meal. Visiting the Snack Bar will get you ice cream, chips and other yummy snacks.

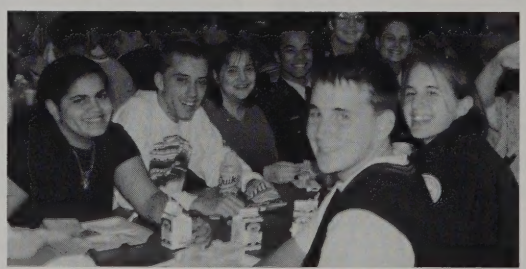
Cleaning up after lunch is not a problem for these four. A sparkling, clean table is left for the next group.



Crowded tables are not unusual in the lunch room. These seniors squeeze as many as possible just to sit with friends.

Underclassmen mingle with seniors during most of the lunch mods. Hot dogs are always a popular choice especially since they come with fries!

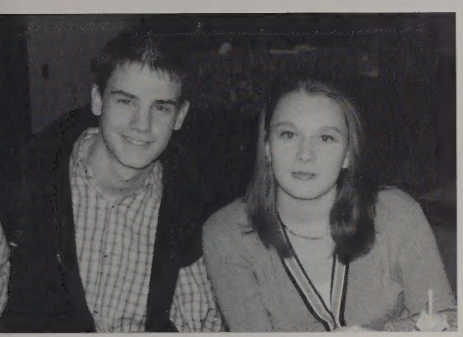
Lunch Bunches

Do you remember when you used to bring a lunch to school? All your favorite snacks in one lunch box or brown bag. Do you remember when your friends always had better snacks than you...let the trading begin!

1999

Table for four please!

Lunch for two is also a nice touch.



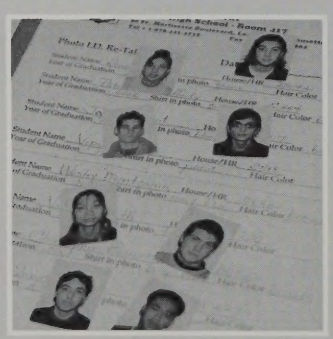
A crowd of ten or more leaves little room for food at the table.

Seven students can barely fit. Enjoying lunch outside in the nice weather, takes the boredom out of the day.

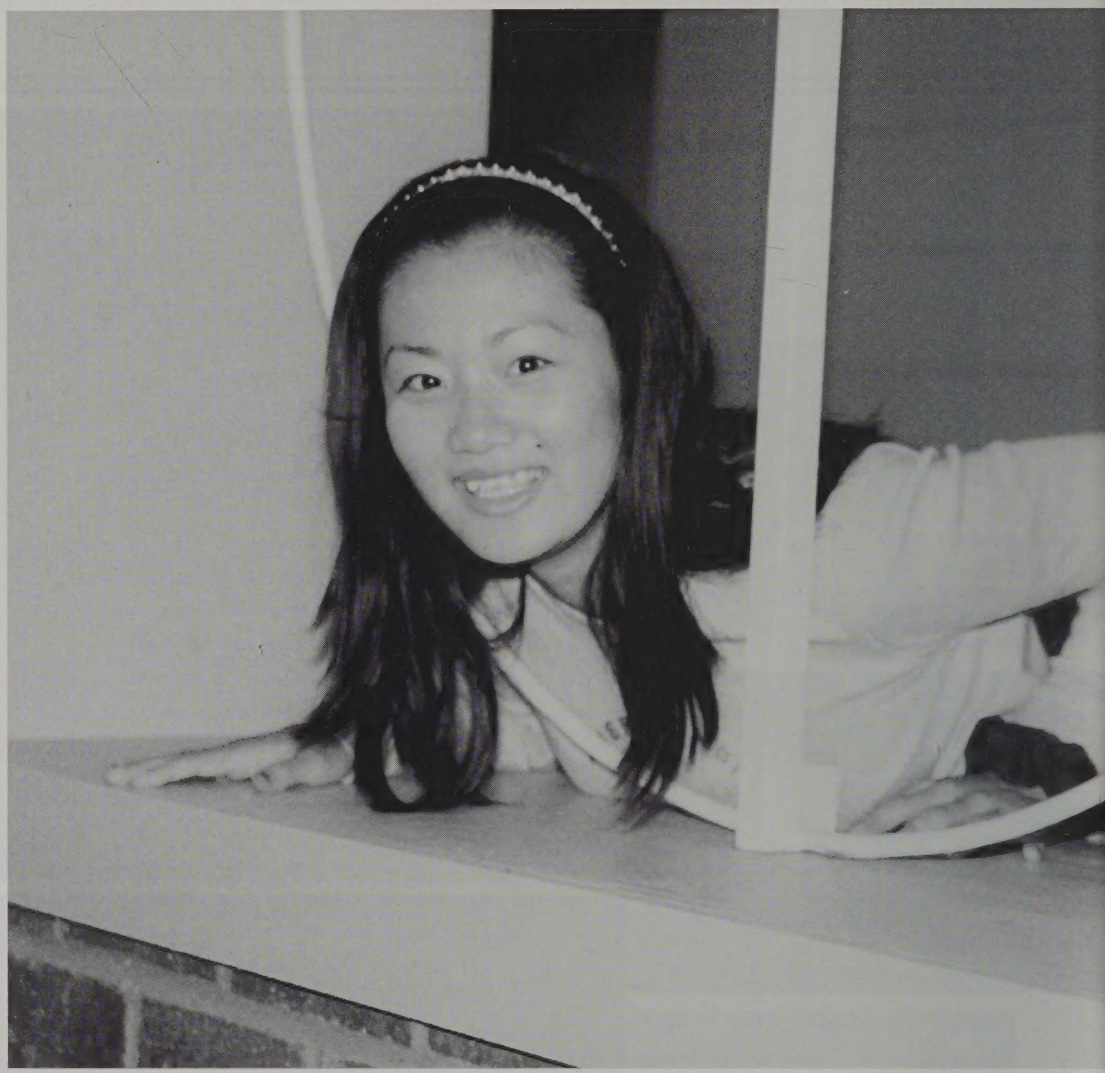
Construction accompanied us throughout the four years, but we benefitted from the results.

Out & Around LHS

No matter where you were in the building, ID Badges were required.



SIXTH FLOOR LOCKER AREA
Reorganizing the building began with a new locker area. Lockers were removed and now you can look down into the library and get to the TV studio from this part of the school.

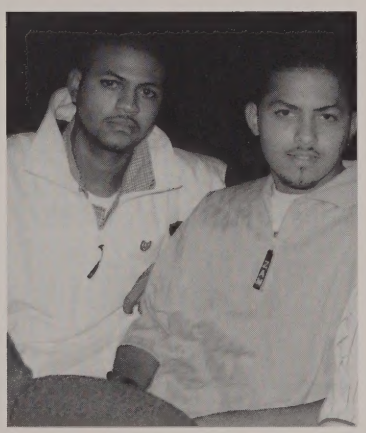


CIRCLES & SQUARES
New, geometrical designs graced our school building. Chanly Koy takes a moment to look through the window. Pastel blues, greens, and purples replaced gaudy yellow and blue.

THIRD FLOOR CANAL SIDE
Describing where classes are held involves the location of the canal that separates the two buildings. The picturesque scene also show the trolley lines.

CENTER OF THE CITY
In the center of downtown, this view from the Library gives students a chance to see local businesses, city offices, and historical landmarks.

RAYMOND RIDDICK FIELDHOUSE
Filled to capacity, the fieldhouse served host to many fun events including pep rallies, dances, and sports.

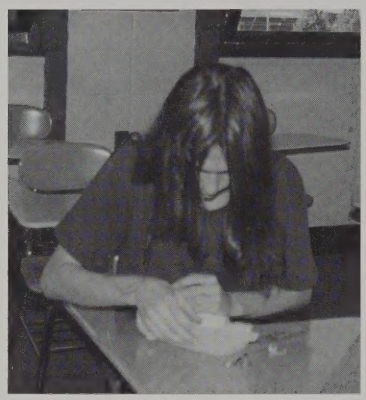


THE TUNNEL CONNECTION
Getting to classes seemed a lot easier when students began using the new tunnel connecting the two buildings near Fr. Morissette Blvd.

STADIUM STYLE SEATING
Sitting in comfort, these students take a break from class to enjoy the auditorium seats. The aisles seats were reconditioned and still display the LHS logo. Matching the school colors, walls were painted in grey and the seats were a maroon fabric.

GROUP SHOTS

Members gather to take pictures for the Cambodian Club officers. Flanked by advisors, students plan events for parties and cultural events.



EXPERIMENTING

Working individually or with a team students get deeply involved in their projects. James Rising prepares his boat for a Science League meet.

BEING WITH FRIENDS

Joining a club or activity is always more fun when you have someone you know with you at the different events. Officers of the Afro-American Club pose for this picture.

HAVING FUN

Participating in fun events draws record crowds to various events. Members of Student Government lead the way and plan actvities for all students to get involved with.

Join the Crowd

Are You An Active Member?

Are you an active member,
the kind that would be missed;
Or are you just contented that your name is on the list?
Do you attend the meetings,
and mingle with the flock;
Or do you just stay away
and criticize and knock?
Do you take an active part,
to help the work along;
Or are you satisfied to be the kind that "Just Belongs?"
Do you ever work on committees,
to see there is no trick;
Or leave the work to just a few
and talk about the clique?
So come to the meetings often,
and help with hand and heart
Don't just be a member
but take an active part.
Think this over member
and know right from wrong;
Are You An Active Member,
Or Do You Just Belong?

Written by an Active Member 1970

So many clubs, so little time. It is our last year to join ILC or the Chess Club. Our last year to pay club dues and be part of a bigger whole. Attending meetings and being with friends was a major part of our life after classes were done. No more sundae parties, field trips, gatherings, competitions, or Toys for Tots. Just memories of the times we devoted to being part of our school; meeting new people, working with others, making memories that will last as long as we remember them.

COME AND GET IT
Waiting to serve the teachers with a smile, Andrew Gilmore and Kim Long stir the soup for the annual Teacher Appreciation Dinner.

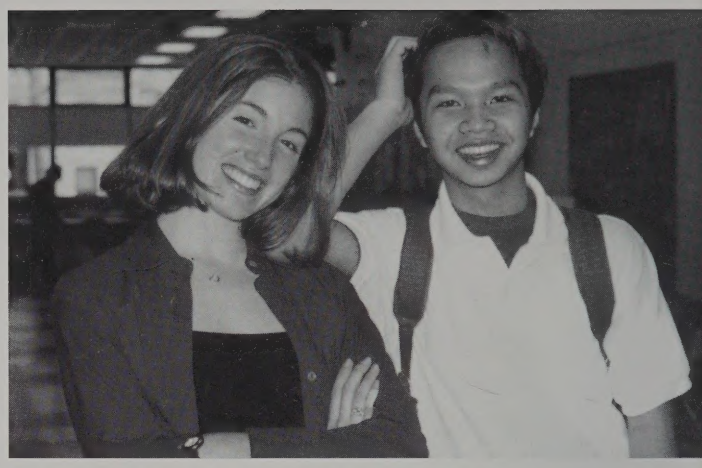
SERVICE WITH A SMILE
Faculty members line up and chat with students as their plates get filled with a delicious meal.

SPECIAL DELIVERY
Stacked with presents, Sophea Yay works with Chanvon Mom and Danielle Sullivan to get the presents loaded on the bus.

COULD I HAVE A SMALL PIECE
Trying not to be too picky, server Brian Kassis places a hearty piece of lasagna on teachers' plates. Students thanked teachers as they made their way down the line.

JOB WELL DONE
Ending their dinner with coffee and dessert Maureen Mulryan and Ann Bienvenue share a smile with co-workers and students.

WRAP IT UP
Tape, scissors, and paper are all Wilson Rith needed to finish the job. Wrapping gifts for delivery is one of the highlights for students.

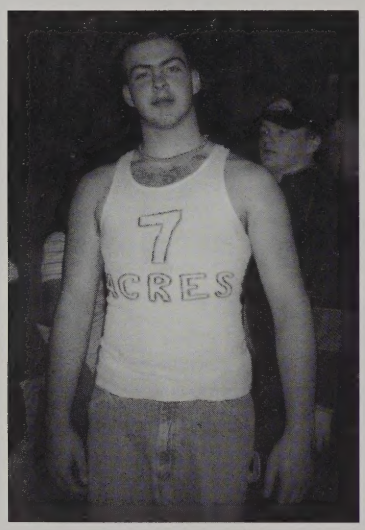


A MOMENT TO REFLECT

Taking a break from the Student Government action Bridget Griffith and Vanna Sann are happy to be part of all the activities. From start to finish, these two get the job done.

PRE-SHOW JITTERS

Playing the night before their March 5 national release of their new CD, 7 Acres put on a concert for over 300 students in the auditorium.



DRESSED FOR SUCCESS

Showing his support for 7 Acres, Jason Houston made his own concert t-shirt.

AUTOGRAPH SEEKERS

Members of the band took time out to sign autographs for students. CDs and t-shirts were given away throughout the night to concert-goers.

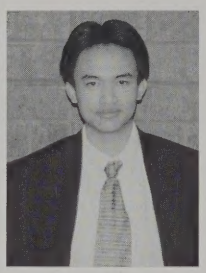
Honoring Academic Excellence

71st Induction Ceremony Held
December 8, 1998

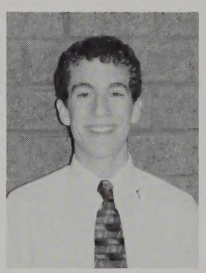
National Honor Society

CHARACTER



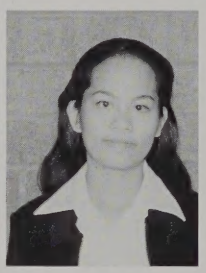
*To me character means defining the world around you, regardless of the angle in which you percieve it. Character is a unique mark of expression on every face.--Sowadi Chea

LEADERSHIP



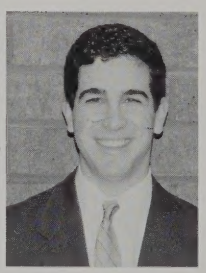
*A true leader will never fail to find the right moral direction. Regardless of the circumstance, one who leads will retain a level-headedness that others sometimes lack. Leaders succeed at times when the path to success detours through tough decisions.--Jeff Silveria

SERVICE



*Service to me is voluntarily giving assistance to my school and community. Service is being motivated and ready to help. Service is spending my time in a worthy way while at the same time enjoying what I'm doing. Service to me is what I can do to promote my community's welfare.--Kannitha Prum

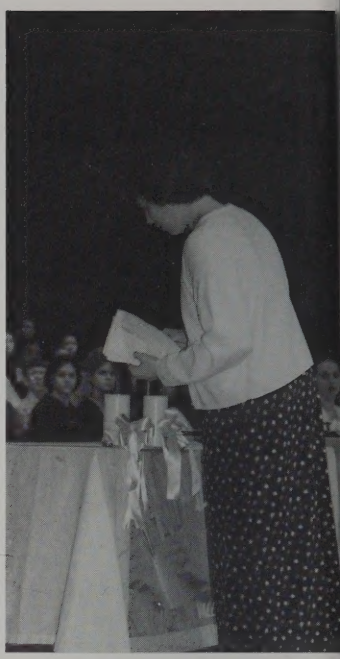
SCHOLARSHIP



*Scholarship is the defining charateristic of the class of 1999. Hardwork, persistance, and determination have through the last four years and will into the future bring honors to the class of 1999.--Karam Saab

Cornerstone Qualities

THE TRADITION CONTINUES
Lighting the candle for Scholarship, Colleen Janeiro takes part in the traditional ceremony held each December to induct members. Also participating in the ceremony was Shalu Shelat, who lit the candle for Leadership.



POSING FOR THE CAMERA
While waiting for the ceremony to begin, seniors inductees gather in the Little Theatre. Senior members were presented a certificate for two year memberships. New inductees received a pin and membership card.

MERRY OLD SAINT NICK
Taking a spin on the dance floor, Seniors Bridget Griffith and Santa Jason Lepine glide around the dance floor at the Christmas dance sponsored by the NHS.

SEEING DOUBLE
Getting prepared for his Christmas eve journey, Senior Andrew Gilmore rests his weary bones at the dance. Students were able to get their picture taken with Santa at the dance.

HONORARY MEMBERSHIP Honoring a teaching legend, Treasurer James Marcotte presents Carl Garside, a biology teacher, with a plaque signifying his honorary membership in Chapter 636. Mr. Garside will retire at the end of the year.

Estudiantes Hispanos

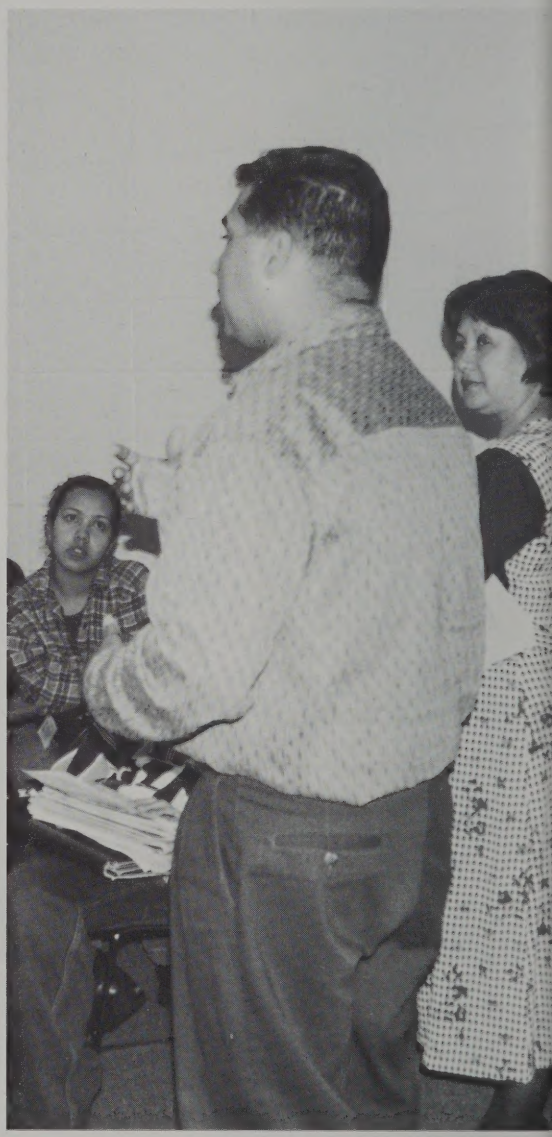
Building Partnerships for a Better Tommorrow!

La Asociacion de estudiantes hispanos de Lowell High School tiene un enfoque muy claro, el de mejorar en todo aspecto la educacion del estudiante hispano en la ciudad de Lowell. El progreso que se ha visto en nuestros estudiantes en la escuela secundaria de Lowell, marca un momento historico, no solamente en la ciudad de Lowell, pero quiza tambien a nivel de estado. Reitaremos nuevamente que es muy importante que nuestros padres de familia, maestros y la comunidad en general continuemos trabajando para proveer, un mejor futuro para nuestros jovenes.

En la union esta la fuerza

HISPANIC CLUB MEMBERS Members met every Tuesday after school in the cafeteria to discuss different issues and to plan activities.

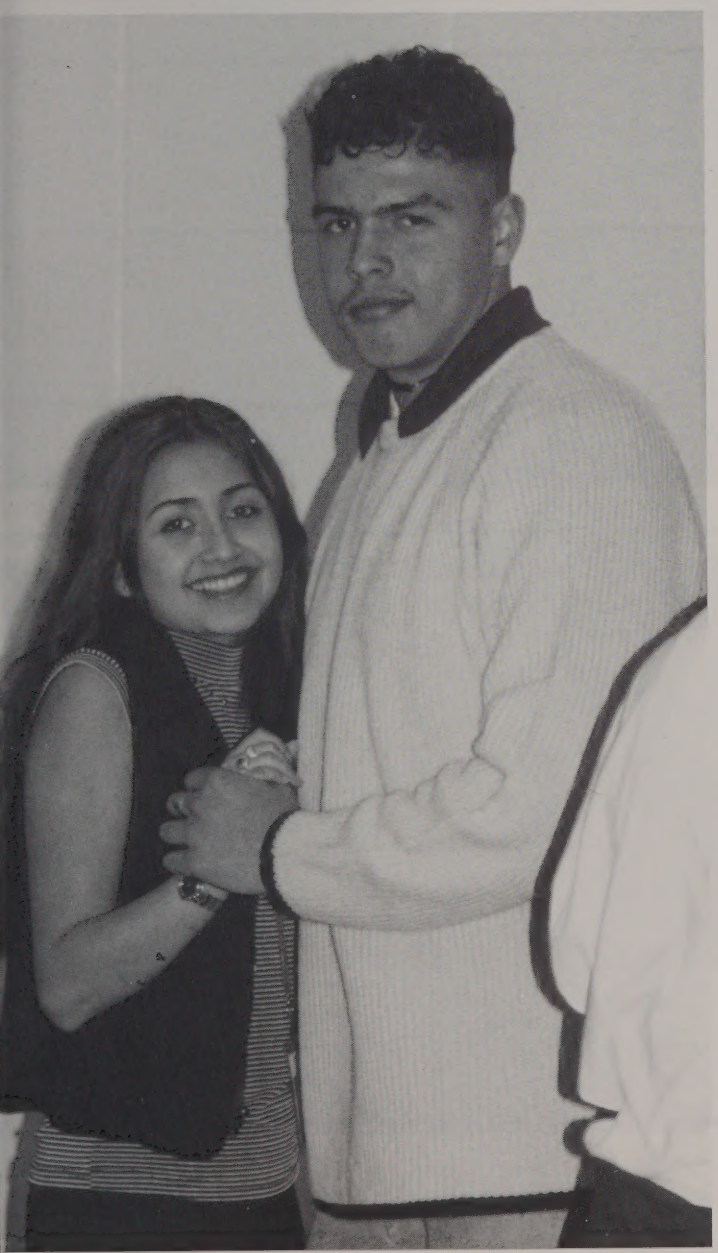
CLUB OFFICERS Organizing the club was the work of (Front Row L-R) President Silvana Vejar, Secretary Sandra Duque, Academic Representative Vivian Santos, Sports Representative Nere Fuentes, Vice President Triana Wilson (Back Row L-R) Treasurer Carmen Torres, Secretary Christopher Barros, Treasurer Ivan Maldonado, Academic Representative Jorge Osorio.



TASK ORIENTED The advisors, Jose Rivera and Marie Vejar-Borison kept students on track and helped organize events to bring the community together. Students cooperated and listened to their advice.

A D V I S I N G
Serving as the advisor with Mr. Rivera, Ms. Vejar-Borison worked diligently with students to promote good leadership skills and assisted students to become active members of the school community.

HANGIN' WITH FRIENDS
After leaving a meeting, Jacqueline Medina and Taysha Oyola get together to talk about the future club plans. Being able to participate in clubs with people you know makes it more fun to be involved.



DANCING TO THE MUSIC
Celebrating the holiday season, Silvana Vejar and Jorge Osorio dance to the rhythmic beat of merengue.

GATHERING FOR PEACE
Members of the club gather with various community organizations in celebration of peace throughout the city. Proud to represent LHS, members took an active role in the peace rally.

Celebrating Cultural Diversities

International Language Club

The International Language Club represents the language diversities at Lowell High School. The ILC gives members the opportunity to obtain a better understanding of the different cultures of the world. With its lively traditions, the club allows students to come together and celebrate the ethnic diversity of LHS as well as the city of Lowell. The club reaches students throughout the high school, by involving them in international culture-related activities.

The ILC celebrates the different holidays each culture brings into the community. At the beginning of the year a sundae party is held to welcome back old and new members. A holiday dinner provides the students an opportunity to cook a meal from a country or culture of their choice. Everyone then gathers together to eat and enjoy the evening with a blend of European music and games. A sponsor of student trips, Quebec is one destination where students enjoy the Canadian climate and culture.

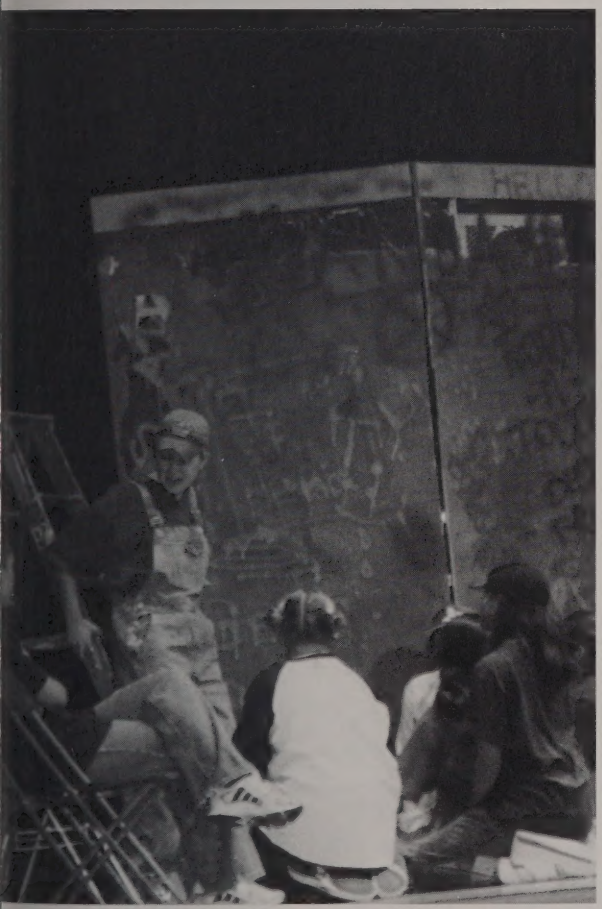
Theatre Company Members Emerge for State Drama Festival

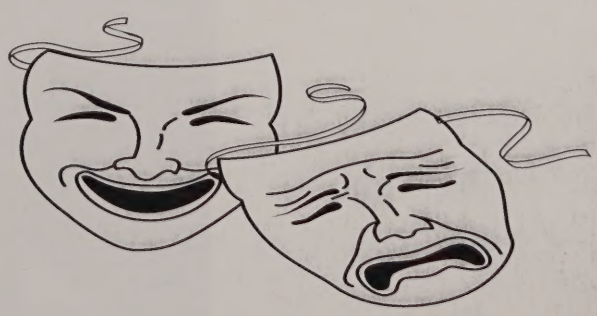
One-Act Festival Spotlights Talented Artists

Students are given the opportunity to perform on stage by participating in the Theatre Company/Drama Club. Either acting on stage or performing roles behind the scenes, students work in an ensemble to deliver a great performance. Under the direction of Salvatore DiMino, the drama club held the First Annual One-Act Festival on Saturday, January 9, in the Cyrus W. Irish Auditorium. Plays such as The Babysitter, A Storm in the Dorm, A Woman, A Bathroom, and A Dream, and Cats & Dogs were performed. Members also participated in the 68th Annual Boston Globe State High School Drama Festival in March at the John Hancock Hall, Boston with over 100 other schools from throughout the commonwealth. Vanna Sann and Micaela McGuane both took home Best Actor Awards for their respective parts in While Shakespeare Slept.



SETTING THE STAGE
With over 100 members vying for starting roles, the Drama Club looked forward to the spring performance of Little Shop of Horrors.

STAGING AREA
Preliminary work is complete on this staging material. Members of the club work together to create sets for the various productions.



The Spindles, Concert Chorus, A Capella Choir perform at various events to the delight of on lookers…

The Spindles participated at the Shepherd Hill Invitational in Dudley MA, were they took home the Bronze Medal. At the Nutmeg Festival in Windsor Locks CT, they took home the Silver Medal and at the Eastern Show Choir Festival in Waltham, the Spindles received the Bronze Medal. They also hosted their own festival aimed at beginner show choirs. They have conducted numerous fundraisers to pay for a trip to Bermuda where they will perform. Concert Chorus members work hard all year, learning vocal music. They perform seasonal music at the Winter and Spring Concerts. The A Cappella Choir performs at all Music Department concerts and they sing at the National Honor Society Induction Ceremony and the LHS Graduation.

OPENING CEREMONIES
Awaiting opening remarks by state officers, Christie Rector, Jennie Espinola, Laura Lamarche, Andrea Fagundes, and Amy Capone are happy to be at NARCON.

LIVING IT UP
Down time is fun when you are at conferences, Andrea Fagundes and Alicia Grand take time from their hectic conference schedule to ham it up!

CHECK IN TIME
A time consuming task is waiting to check in to the hotel rooms and get prepared for the days' activities. Laura Lamarche, Andrea Fagundes, Jennie Espinola, Rosheen McGrail and Christie Rector don't mind.

KISSES FOR DECA
Oh, how we love MASS-DECA! Alicia Grand and Rebecca Richardson enjoy every aspect of DECA events; especially screaming loud and dancing on chairs!

DON'T MAKE ME MOVE
All comfy-n-cozy, Marinela Vasquez dreads moving to the next workshop. Although students get time away from school, they are kept busy at all times.

SENIORS IN STYLE
With notebooks in hand, Myra Adams, Alicia Grand, Rebecca Richardson, and Grace Alves are ready for whatever comes their way.

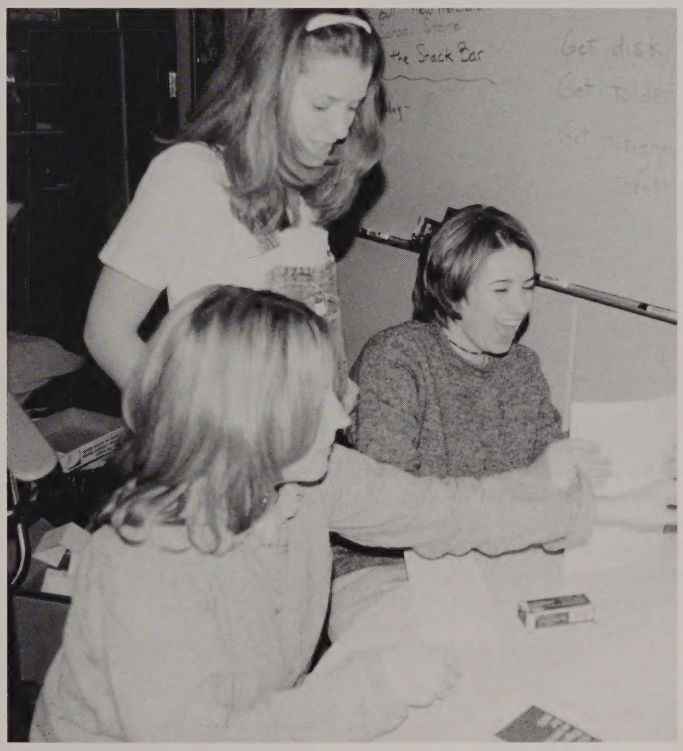
Demands & Deadlines

More Than You'd Expect

After many months of laboring, the book is ready for your review. The staff, headed by Advisor Jill Sullivan, has been working diligently since the beginning of September during Mods 12/13 & 14/15.

Meeting the deadlines and complying with due dates took hard work, but the yearbook staff beat them with flying colors. Our first deadline was met on November 11. This was quite early because we wanted color in the first 16 pages of the book. Next, 92 pages were due December 22. We celebrated with a pizza party because we were done two days early! Our final deadline was February 22. A chance to look back and be proud of the work we accomplished.

Enjoy!



Stuffing envelopes was one of the meaningless tasks required of the staff. Alicia Grand doesn't seem to mind because it looks like Jennie Espinola is doing all the work.

Collating papers and stapling them together was not hard work for Meghan White and Elena Ansara. Mitzy Lima oversees the process to make sure they are doing it right the first time.

I HAVE A HEADACHE
Using your brain as well as your muscles was necessary to complete the renovation.

HUMAN CHAIN
Students had to pass gallon containers to the next person in line, up one stairwell and down another until all 3,000 pounds of gravel was transformed into the scenic, neatly maintained Courtyard.

BACK BREAKER
Putting some real sweat into this job was a pleasure for most students. The end result, a nice quiet place to sit and reflect on a hard school day.

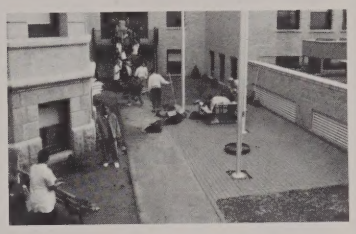
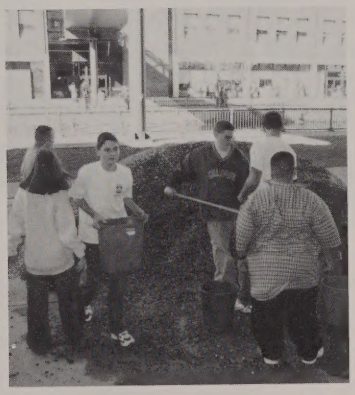
PRACTICE & HARD WORK
Competitive events are held in various skill categories including Co-ed with Arms, All Female with Arms and All Female without Arms. Practicing drills are part of ROTC aterschool programs.

COURTYARD VIEW
With nearly 70% of the work completed, students and staff work diligently to complete the major renovations to the Courtyard prior to the November 11 Veteran's Day Dedication.

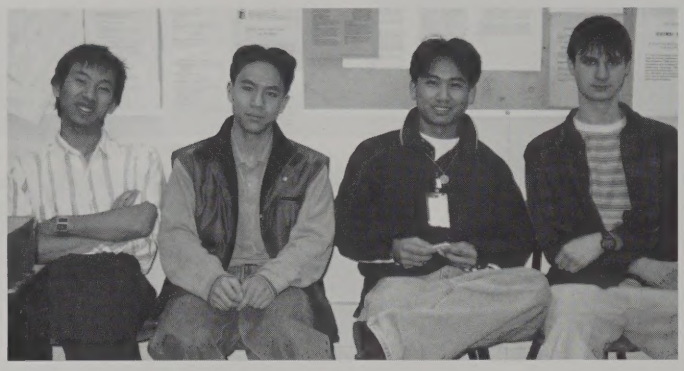




GREENERY & SHRUBS
Donations of plants and treew helped to beautify the Courtyard. The new view from the ROTC classrooms was greatly improved by the efforts of so many students and staff.

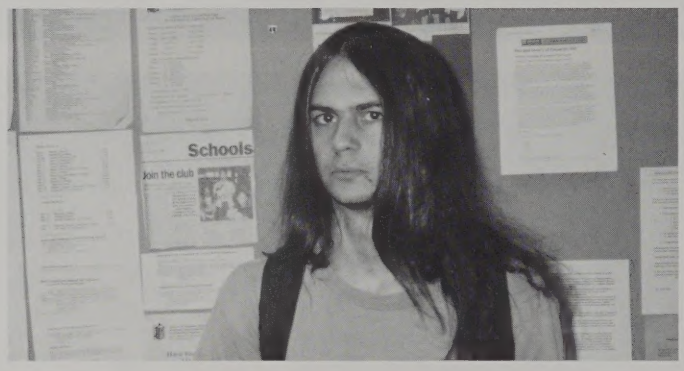
A TON OF ROCKS
Over 3,000 pounds of gravel was delivered during the week to the canal side of the old building. The task for students was to move it to the new Courtyard and distribute it evenly. A human chain was made to help in this endeavor. Now that's TEAMWORK!

The Trophy is Our's to Keep



Forensic Science Team

Finishing First against 16 other teams, the Inforensic Science Team answered 39 of 40 questions on the test correctly. The next closest team answered only 31 questions correctly. Members included Yang Tran, Khamara Lek, Thy Thok, and William Cox.



Oceanography Team

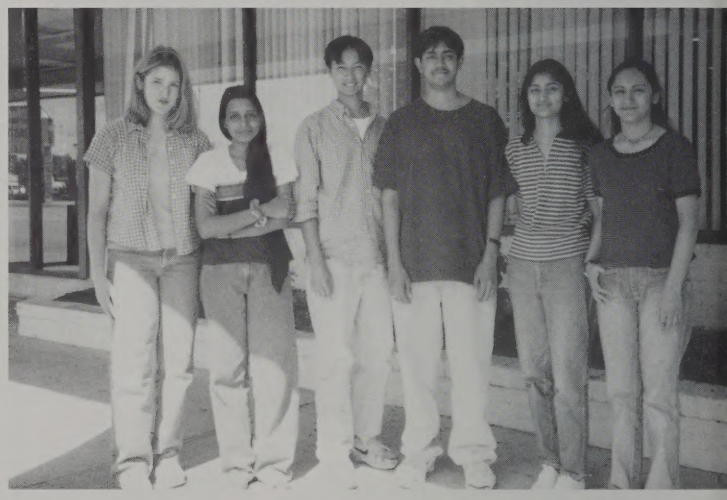
Finishing Seventh at Wellesley High School, the Oceanography Team consisted of James Rising and Amy Spence.

Scrambler Team

Competing against 16 other teams, the Scrambler Team placed Third in their event. They had to launch a car as close to the wall as possible approximately 8 meters. The car was attached to an egg that could not be cracked or it would disqualify the team. Members included Paul Do, Apostoli Damianakis, Matt Theodoros, Bryan DeAngelis, and Karam Saab.

SCIENCE FAIR PROJECT

Completing the Science Fair Projects for awards were Fifth Place "Glue Christine Mulligan; Second Place Nguyen Huynh & Aarrti Patel "Do Le Handers have equal manual dexterity as Right Handers;" Fourth Place Sharo Wheatley & Darcie DeAngelo "The Effects of Color on Handwriting;" and Firs Place Corey Smith "Polymers."



SCIENCE CLUB OFFICER

Science League Co-Captain Kristina O'Brien, Secretary Pinal Patel, Scien League Co-Captain Paul Do, President Saurabh Calla, Vice President Tej Patel, and Treasurer Gati Dharani.

WHAT IS IT ALL ABOUT?

The Science Club is made up of students who are interested in science, and who would like to meet other students with the same interests to pursue science related activities and to expand their knowledge in the sciences.

The club held regular meetings on the last Thursday of each month. The meetings include planning for the upcoming events and we also discuss the results of previous events. A science program is conducted and refreshments are served. Special programs are run including the LHS Science Fair and participation in the West Suburban Science League, the Science Olympiad, the Regional Science Fair, and the Massachusetts State Fair at MIT. Students also had the opportunity to participate in a field trip to the Museum of Science, fun winter festivities and also a teacher appreciation day. Another area of interest is if a student has a science related hobby, presentations are always encouraged at one of the meetings.

The Fun Side of Science

Aside from Competitive Events, Science Club members also enjoy parties, field trips, meetings and special programs.

AS THE ADVISOR, Mrs. Athena Letsou joins the fun raffling prizes to those attending the Holiday Party.

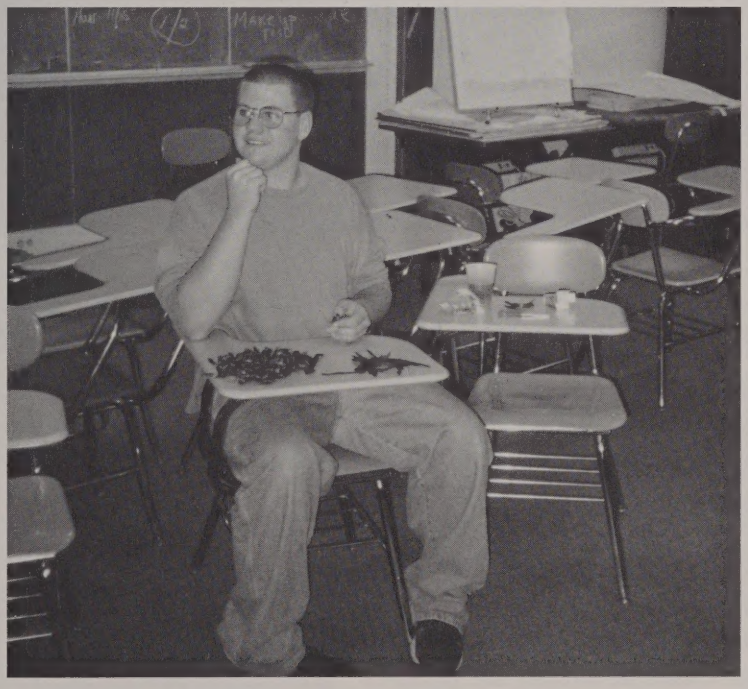
Assisting with advisorship duties, Mr. John Silva oversees the club activities with Ms. Janet Dendy.



MY FAIR SHARE
Many volunteers were on hand as part of the Red Ribbon Campaign. Matt O'Malley works diligently on his stack of ribbons to be distributed to students during all lunch mods.

CAREFUL PREPARATION Vying for the top positions is the primary way to guarantee that you make it into the state tournament. Khounchai Linlavong and Johny Phommachack play each other in preparation for the Northeast Singles Championships.

MIND OVER matter

CHECKMATE Contemplating her next move, Jaime Dethamphavane begins to make her move in the game.

CHESS CLUB OFFICERS Philip Grondine, President; Lisa Shugrue, Vice President; Advisor James Clements; Luis Calex, Secretary; and Koneakol Khy, Treasurer.

Competing at the State Level

Chess Club members competed for the first time at the Northeast Singles Championships, held at Andover HS on January 24. In the 10–12 category Khounchai Linlavong placed Ninth, Phil Grondine placed Tenth, and Jamie Dethamphavane placed Eleventh. Johny Phommachack tied for Thirteenth place. Wilson Rith placed Sixteenth in the 7–9 category. Over 30 members vie for top positions throughout the year on Thursday afternoons in the cafe. Mr. Jim Clements advises the group of students who strategically play.

Led by Kounchai Linlavong, Johnny Phommachack, Wilson Rith, and Jaime Dethaphavane, the Chess Team placed Fifth while participating in the Northeast Massachusetts Scholastic Team Chess Championships at Andover HS on February 28.

"Strategy in its' purest form..."

M A S T E R Examining every last detail of the board prior to his move, Mr. Clements oppose Phil Grondine for practice. Students spend each game working the board and figuring out the opponents' next move.

It's in the Cards

The Gaming Club, introduced in 1997, gave students the opportunity to meet and play strategy games with other students.

Magic: The Gathering players went to tournaments in the local area. One of the highlights many students participated in was the Massachusetts State Championship and other metro-Boston tournaments.

Role-players had fun with a spilt story adventure. Two groups of people, both in the same game but playing at different times, met and battled in the final adventure.

Gathered in the cafeteria nearly everyday after school, members sit and enjoy time to talk and play intriguing games with others.

P A T I E N C E
On any given day, you can find members in the cafe huddled around a table in various groups of two, three, and four. Two members play while two look on.

OUR FOUNDING FATHER
Persuading Mrs. Fineman to add another club to the activities list was the work of Andrew Stokinger. Andy was the voice of interested students wanting to assemble after school each day to play strategy games.

A DIFFERENT DRUM
Stopping for just a minute, the percussion section waits to go onto the field. Mauricio Mendes, James McGrath, Shaun Sweeney, Josu Oyola, and Scott Ellis are well prepared for their performance.

1999 LHS BAND
Playing at football games is not the only time the band gets to spotlight their talents. Band members participate in parades, pep rallies, and other city functions.

IN THE STANDS
After the halftime performance, members relax in the stands and wait for the fourth quarter to begin. "James Bond Themes" was the highlight of the halftime show.

REMEMBER WHEN...
Former Color Guard members (Front Row L-R) Melissa Ilg, Henry Cordero, Diliana DeJesus (Middle Row L-R) Ariel Gabriel, Nere Fuentes, Aida Martinez (Back Row L-R) Suzzane Turgeon, Heather Delp, Madeline Morris, Melissa Wood, and Stef.

LAYERED UP FOR WARMTH
Leading the band at the football games, Katie Rene wears at least seven layers of clothing to keep warm. "I'm still cold!" remarked Katie.

BUS RIDES
Traveling by bus can get tiresome, but being toegther made the notorious band bus...an experience.

THANKSGIVING DAY
Late in the season, band members dreaded sitting on the cold bleachers. As usual, everyone froze on Turkey Day. Seniors were recognized with white carnations in honor of their last game.

FLAGGETT FOREVER
Revamping the Color Guard program was the work of a few determined individuals. Melissa Ilg (Right) worked diligently with Nicole Clay and Diliana DeJesus to prepare for each games' performance.

THE 50 YARD LINE
Centered on the field, band members performed the National Anthem at the beginning of each home game. Although small in number, they could be heard throughout the stadium.

Let the Music Play

Making music, making people laugh, showing spirit and pride in our school...

"...and now welcome onto the field, the Lowell High School Marching Band. They are led by Band Director David Keefe, Drum Major Kathryn Rene, Assistant Drum Major Megan Follett. The percussion section is led by Mauricio Mendes, the Color Guard Captain is Melissa Ilg and the Assistant Color Guard Captain is Diliana DeJesus."

These words will forever echo in the ears of 1999's LHS Band Seniors. A great year, with great improvements in disciplne, organization, and dedication was had by all.

Living so closely together, we became a family to each other, and won't soon forget the great times we've had.

Time, distance; nothing can change these precious moments we've shared together.

Through the Years 1995-1998

IT ALL STARTED HERE

The Summer of 1996 proved to be an exciting time for the Mock Trial Team, they traveled to Arizona for the national competition and took Third Place.

I'M LEAVING ON A JET PLANE...

Going the distance, the Mock Trial Team took off for the national competition in San Fransisco. They made it into the final round and placed Second.

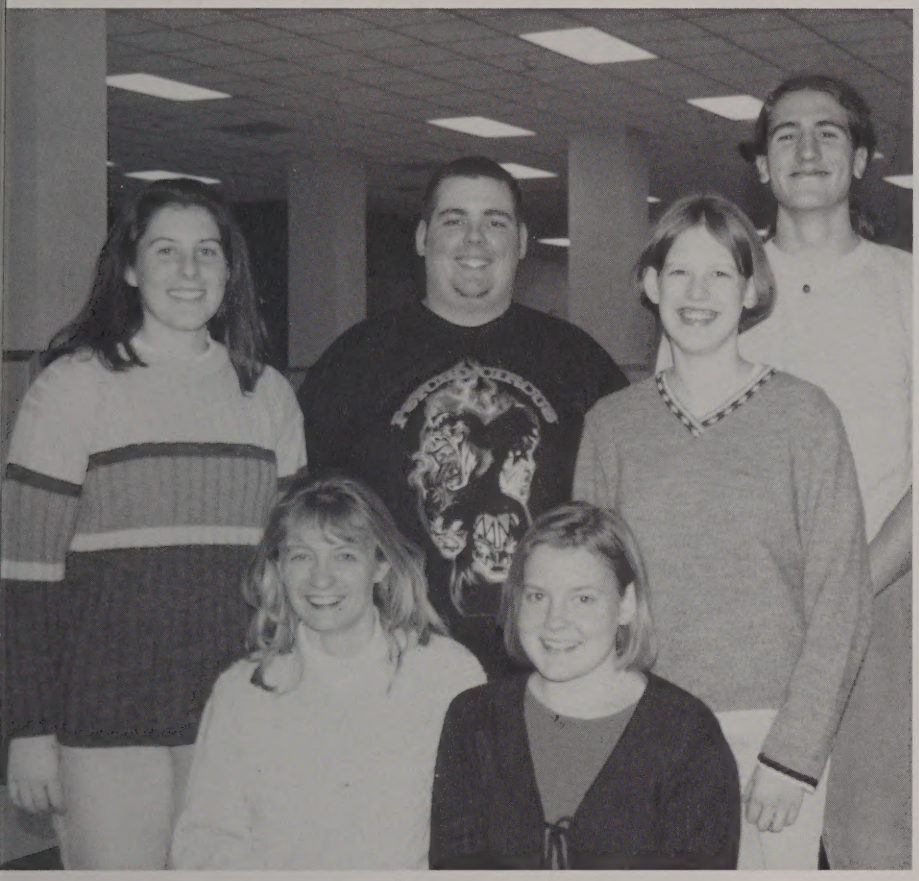
HEADING SOUTH

The national competion was held in Maryland in the Summer of 1998. The weather was hot and competition was fierce; the team had a good time.

Mock Trial is not just a club to the students that participate in it Mock Trial is a way to build self-confidence, quick thinking skills, and long lasting friendships. A case is developed by a group of lawyers and then given to each participating school. The case is distributed to the students and discussed. When everyone has an idea of the case and the facts, the students decide whether they would like to be on the prosecution or defense, a witness or a lawyer or in some cases, both. The team then begins to pick apart affidavits, make direct examination questions, cross examination questions, opening and closing arguments. During this process everyone puts their ideas together and discusses the case and what strategies should be used.

"Mock Trial gave me confidence as a freshman because my ideas were never shot down and when someone woud speak, the team took it seriously and listened. The only way Mock Trial can work is by learning to interact with other people. When we walk into the court room we aren't just high school students pretending to be lawyers, we are serious and act as if we really are in a court room battling for a real person or issue. We are observant of the rules and take ourselves seriously. As team members we support each other and give constant encouragement." -Jessica Stepney

What the Judge Says Goes!



MOCK TRIAL OFFICERS The helpers behind the scences are President Melissa Ilg, Vice President Jessica Stepney, (Back L-R) Fundraising Veronica Gendron, Publicity Coordinator Ray Perreault, Secretary Nicole Clay, and Treasurer Robert Pitkin.

THE GLUE THAT KEEPS US TOGETHER The Mock Trial Team would not function without its' experienced advisors; Frank & Patricia Talty are two local lawyers that give their time to advise the team.

COURTS' IN SESSION The Mock Trial Team keeps growing; 1999 involved many new members raising the total number of participants to 7 students.

Healthy Life Skills-Peer Leadership

Educating Youth in Prevention Activities Including Teen Dating Violence, Homelessness, Sexual Harassment, Gang Violence, and the Dangers of Drug, Alcohol & Tobacco Use

GROUP EFFORT
Trained students gather to plan activities for others. Specifically to reach the need of the youth in their school and community.

FUN & GAMES

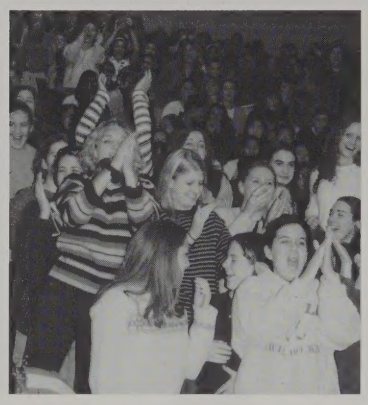
YEAH, WE'RE DONE

Seniors celebrate after submitting the Senior Profile sheets. If you don't have anything under your name, you didn't turn the sheet in.



THE PERFECT OUTFIT

Picking out the perfect outfit for the portraits was just a difficult as finding the right dress for the Harvest; just ask Elena Ansara and Alexandra Maraganis.

SIT UP STRAIGHT!

Posing for the camera, Kim Mello dressed in her finest attire. Although she was dressed for the Harvest, the instructions were the same back at the studio.

Senior Portraits

Familiar Faces

"It felt funny having my pictures done because it really hit me that I was a senior. I had to think twice about it because I couldn't believe it."

Grace Alves, Class of 1999

At at the end of our junior year, we were given a catalog from Pendleton to schedule our Senior Portrait appointments. Discounts were offered and many of us took advantage of the savings. Over 500 seniors were photographed before the first deadline. We also had the opportunity to fill out a Survey Sheet to be submitted by October 15. The experience in a nutshell was nerve racking because of the excitement and anxiety of the pictures turning out half-way decent. By the end of the year, we will all look different.

SPECIAL SERVICES

One of the many different services available includes Educational Talent Search. Students receive assistance for college and scholarship applications.

TOP NOTCH STAFF

Working with students is one of the many tasks given to office staff throughout the school. Mrs. Theokas-Main Office, Mrs. Wallace-Bursar, and Mrs. Green-Athletics assisted students on a daily basis with different problems.

AWARD WINNERS

Recognized for Excellence, members of the Teen Health Center, housed in the basement of the Old Building, contributed to the effective running of the school.

INTERNING

Working as Interns in the Library, Lisa Shugrue, Welton Oliveira and Ceara Moriarty are responsible for hanging the decorations at the beginning of each season.

Face the Day

s part of the Associa-ion of the United States rmy and the American ed Cross, these students rote a paper on George V. Sherman who died at Anderson Rebel Prison" n 1861. They won a $100 avings Bond. Winners ictured are Teacher/Ad-isor Mr. Jim Peters, atima Gomes, Chirag atel, Meredith Cyr and riana Wilson. Not pic-ured from the winning ssay team are Augustine wuah, Johanna Rivera, nd Angie Paradise.

During our freshman year, we were clustered. We spent the day with pretty much the same students. As we continued on our educational journey, sophomore year gave us more freedom to choose our classes and made us feel more part of the school community. Junior year began with a focus on SAT preparation and starting the college search. Now, as we embark on our future, we look back and see how time has quickly past. What we have learned in these 12 years is the foundation for our future.

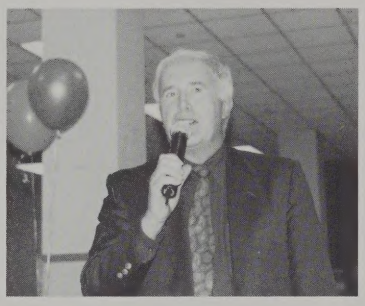
Headmaster William Samaras leads staff of 300 into a new millenium with technology updates and advances.

Speaking to groups of people is not uncommon for Headmaster William Samaras.

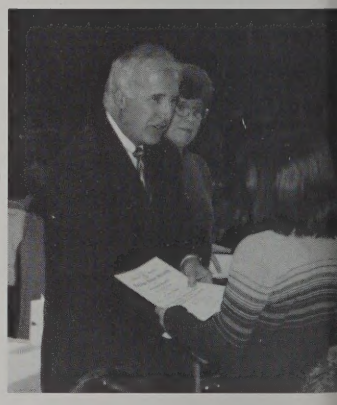


Over the past four years, Mr. William Samara has provided an environment conducive for learn ing. With major renovations happening through out the building, Headmaster Samaras looked fo ward to new challenges and even more changes i the population, academic requirements and a ver active student body. His position pulled him in variety of directions, but he always looked forwar to speaking with students and taking part in scho activities.

STUDENT ADVISORY COUNCIL
Working with students to make the school a better place was a major focus for Mr. Samaras.

WELCOMING REMARKS
One of his many tasks included addressing large numbers of groups. Mr. Samaras welcomes special guests at the National Honor Society Induction Ceremony.

CONGRATULATIONS
An easy task, Mr. Samaras congratulates students on a job well done.



Dear Students,

As graduates of the last high school class in this millenium, you will always remember your high school years. Your graduation will set you forth on a new adventure as adults. Always remember the people that have helped you prepare for your adulthood, your family, teachers, and friends. Let your knowledge and experience positively influence you in your future decisions and directions. Best wishes and congratulations.

Sincerely,
William Samaras

STANDING BY
Coming together with students is a crucial way to maintain strong relationships. Dr. Moorehouse is available to students throughout the day to assist wherever is necessary.

WORKING WITH OTHERS
Running a school of this size requires some assistance; Mr. Samaras works with Curriculum Coordinator Dorothy Niechwadowicz-Walsh and Master Dr. David Moorehouse on various projects.

MEETING WITH PARENTS
Greeting parents is always a priority for Mr. Samaras. Shown here with Jack Dolan, Mr. Samaras talks about the exciting changes to the high school.

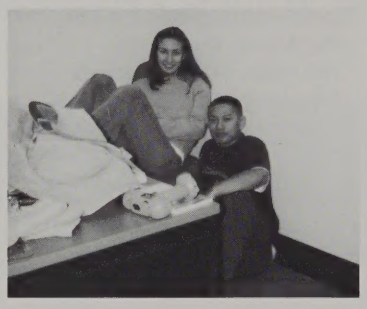
Days Go By So Fast

Spending over 6 hours a day in school can seem to last forever; sometimes you just want the day to end.

TIME TO RELAX
Taking a break from class, Deanna Hamel and Sing Phetvixay wait for their assignment for their TV Studio class. With new state-of-the-art equipment, students headed out to the halls to capture students in action.



There are many different types of classes for students choose from. One of the newest additions is TV Productio students produce and edit their own TV shows. The shows are usually played on Local Cable Access Statio Another new class is Dance. Taking the place of PE cred students learn different styles of dance culture and perfor for different audiences. Office Intern is a popular outl that seniors looked to elect. Students worked in vario offices throughout the school. After school programs a tutoring services are available. Too bad it is too late f some of us to get through. In addition to new classe technology has enhanced the educational process for all

REVIEWING THE FACTS
Researching material is one thing students need to do prior to inputting information into the computer. Erica Haas reviews the 1998 Spindle for differences in this year's edition.

ART IN ACTION
Putting the finishing touches on her clay pot, Cheryl Vigeant doesn't mind displayinig her hard work. As part of Parent's Night, students enrolled in Art classes showcased their work.

CLEAN UP DUTIES
Working in the Kane Restaurant, Samnang Kong has the chore of cleaning the cooking trays. Students used the trays to make cornucopias during the Thanksgiving season.

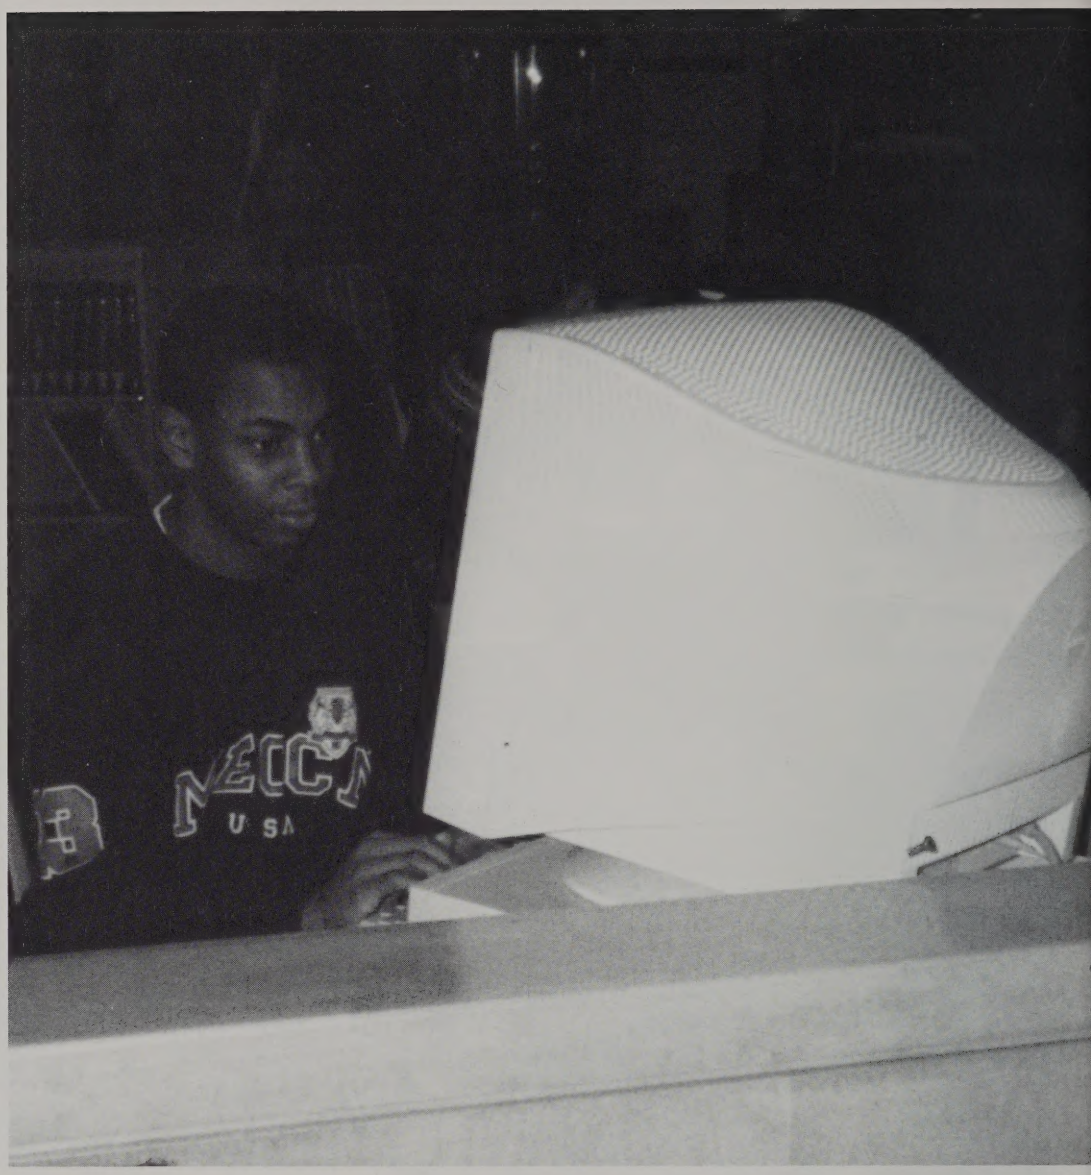
CLASS ACT
Students gather in class to work through different projects and present them to their classroom audience.

HELP ME, I NEED IT
Some students become too stressed and try to make the best of the school day as we see by this students' facial expression.

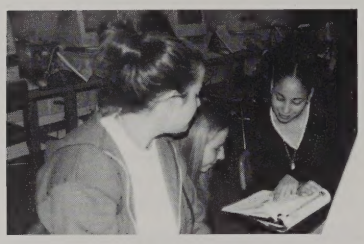
A BAKER'S HALF DOZEN
Working on cornucopia's for the Thanksgiving Season, members of Mr. Jussuame Advanced Foods class work diligently on the breaded creation.

SMALL CLASS SIZES
Taking part in class is fun when you have small classes. Students are able to complete in-depth assignments and do mini-presentations.

LIBRARY WORK
Surfing the net on a library computer, Clive Reid is thankful to have such advanced equipment available to him.



HELPING OUT
Working through a problem, Kim Mello, Sarah Balboni, and Loraine Rodriguez try and figure it out together.



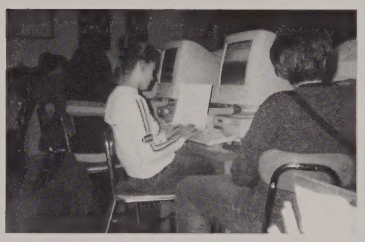
COMPUTER CLASS
Refining their typing skills, Theary Touth and Dara Man get their work done.

CLEANING UP
Finishing up the dishes, Jason Normandin works hard during his Advanced Foods Class. Laughing away, Jay was surprised to be photographed.

INTERNET ACCESS
Using the new computers scattered throughout the school, Chrissy Connerton is grateful to have new technology to utilize for her assignments.

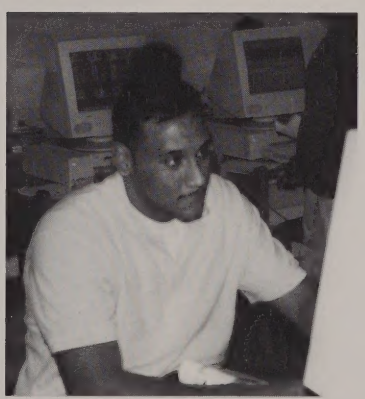
OFFICE 99
Concentrating on the assignments, Kerry Blanchette uses Microsoft Office 97 in her Information Fundamentals class.

A S D F J K L ;
Demonstrating proper technique, Mitzy Lima sits under the watchful eye of Elena Ansara.



TV PRODUCTION
Waiting for the camera to start their newest production, Michelle LaRose and Dan Brennan work together on a project.

GETTING IT DONE
Deadlines and due dates haunted most seniors throughout the year. Haroon Rashid looks happy to be doing his work.

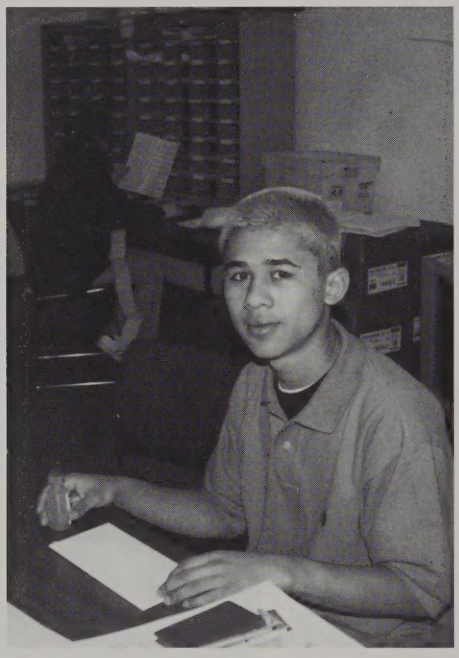


HANDING IN PAPERS
Thrilled to be turning in an assignment on time, Jimmy Cardaci and Erica Haas make sure the work is complete.

Throughout the school, students face the day looking forward to learning something new...

Around the Room

Members of the Jr ROTC Honor Guard learn complicated procedures during their school day.



As an Office Intern, Derek Suon works in D House filing, running errands, and checking in tardy students. A nice break to an otherwise hectic academic day.

Participating in class projects and presentations is one way to make class interesting. Students from various Science classes participate in the Annual Science Fair.

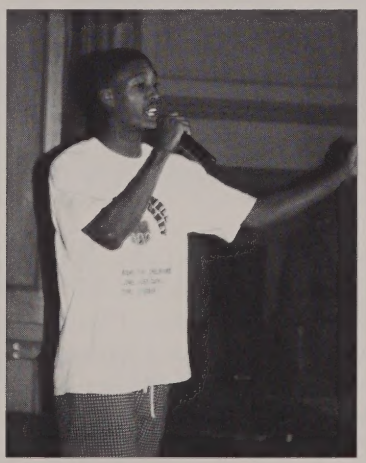
TRADITION

For many years, students have been taught in a traditional classroom setting. Mr. Sullivan's English class was the location shot.



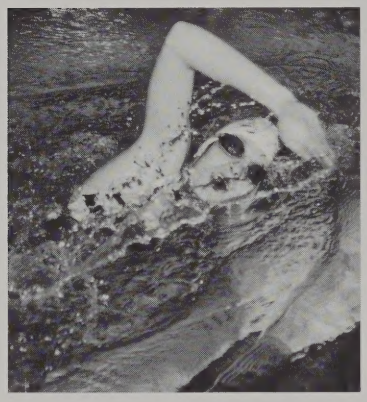
GROUP WORK

Hanging out with friends is one of the most popular ways to spend the day. Students have very little time to talk and just be themselves. They are otherwise studying and learning new material.

R A P P I N G

Not all in school activities are learned in the classroom. Jimmo Neal entertained 8th Grade students during their tour of the school.

THE HANDOFF
Beating Tewskbury for the first time in his high school career, quarterback Adam Michaud looks for a receiver. The Red Raiders dominated the MVC.



TAKING A BREATHER
Lifting her head for a breath of air, senior Amy Bozek swims freestyle.

YELL L H S
With signs in hand, cheerleaders get the crowd going. The team can be found supporting both the football and basketball teams. A favorite cheer for all fans is "Yell Red, Red."

TAKING A SWING
Look out as senior field hockey player Judy Phothimath warms up for a game at Gage Field. Judy was a key player in the teams' first full year as a varsity sport.

Watching From the Crowd

Getting to hangout with friends while watching your classmates compete is the best part about going to sporting events."

Patrick Donovan

I love my sport for so many different reasons. It keeps me in shape and it's fun. I'm not saying it is always fun and games, but what sport really is? I have to sacrifice so many things and I have to work so hard. I am busy juggling school, work, practice, and trying to have a normal social life. It takes a lot out of me despite the fact that I am always tired and my muscles are always aching. I don't think I could ever give it up though because it has been part of my daily routine for so long.

MYRTLE BEACH CLASSIC Receiving their Seventh Place trophy, the team competed against 21 other teams at the The Palace Theatre in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina during April 1998.

FACIAL EXPRESSIONS These winning smiles are always behind the scenes. Lauren Gryszkiewicz and Jill Sullivan made a great coaching team working with the squad.

Whether getting ready for camp activities, celebrating a big compeition win, or cheering on the sidelines, the team togetherness was always positive. Under new MSSAA regulations, adjustments in team size and competition rules had to be made. Lauren and Jill came on board in 1996 to get us ready for Spring Competitions. The changes and advances made were enormous. Motion drills, jump drills, stunt sequences, gymnastics and dance routines became second nature. We believed in ourselves and our goals!

CAPTAINS CORNER

Beth McDermott and Kimberly Mello were voted by their teammates to be the leaders of the squad. Beth received the Coaches Award in the Fall and the Colleen Creegan Spirit Award in the Winter. Kim was MVP in the Fall and received the Deidre Dedeo award at the MVC Tournament in the Winter.

PINBALL FORMATION As part of the routine, team members must stand various formations. Near the end of the routine, the cheerleaders wait for "J Got To Be Funky!"

SILLY SENIORS

Hamming it up for the camera with great facial expressions are Beth McDermott, Vanessa Donnelly, Abby Lantagne, Lindsay Stuart and Kimberly Mello. Abby received the Sportsmanship Award in the Fall and Vanessa received the Colleen Creegran Spirit Award at the MVC Tournament in the Winter.

"We Won!"

...were the screams heard from everyone on the Girls Cross Country team as they attacked each other in excitement for a group hug. What a way to end a season of what seemed to be endless because of injuries and setbacks. They won their last MVC meet; running with only the minimal number allowed, they defeated Methuen. It wasn't about the fact that they won; it was that they had finished knowing in their hearts that they tried their best and had given their all. The season was a success though maybe not on paper.

EXHAUSTION
Captain Andrew Gilmore rests after completing the 2.8 mile course thru the Shedd Park area. A four-year varsity runner, Andrew was a key part of the 8th place finish at the Eastern MA Championship Meet.

CELEBRATE GOOD TIMES
Gathered after the MVC Championship, these 7 varsity runners made up the team that took First Place at the event.

LET'S GO LOWELL
The team gathers together with Coach McKinney for one more "Let's go!" before they line up to run the next race.

PRE MEET FESTIVITIES
Prior to the MVC Championship, the team gathered for the traditional spaghetti dinner at the coach's house. Grape juice and pasta helped the girls place 9th in the league meet.

MVC ALL CONFERENCE
Running away with many awards, Jeff Silveria, Julio Otero, and Eddie Kane were among the many varsity members receiving accolades for a season of excellence.

Simple Observations

"Helping the JV team during their halftime, Judy & I were carrying a huge jug of water onto the wet field. All of a sudden, Judy was down for the count. . .she slipped and fell. It was really quite hysterical!" Casey Burgett

"Defeating Chelmsford was the biggest highlight of the season for me. Since they had previously destroyed us the first time. They don't usually lose. We came prepared to fight and we won!" Angela Bradley

"Excellent improvement . . .serious interest in the sport of Field Hockey . . .continued generation of participation will only enhance the level of success." Coach Lisa Kattar

JABBING FOR THE BALL Senior Captain Alyssa McNeil jabs the ball away from her opponent. Alyssa received the Coaches Award from Coach Kattar.

DRIBBLING TO THE GOAL All-Conference standout Judy Phothimath takes control of the ball and heads past Tewksbury. Judy played in the All Star Game and scored the only goal for the win earning her MVP status for the MVC.

DEFENDING RAIDER COUNTRY Most Improved Player Nicole Rodger awaits in position for the opponent to make her move. Nicole will be one to watch over the next two years.

Red Raiders Finish Strong

After losing 2 of its' first 3 games to returning state champs Nashua and Central Catholic, Lowell won their final 8 games for the longest winning streak since 1986. Lowell finished 9-2 overall, 7-1 in the MVC to finish Second behind 2-time Super Bowl Champions Central Catholic.

Lowell's offense was powered by junior Raunny Rosario and seniors Sing Phetvixay, Adam Michaud and Jason Houston. Rosario broke several school records including Single Season Rushing with over 1,700 yards; Single Game Rushing with 336 versus Haverhill; Most Touchdowns Scored in a Season with 30; and Most Points Scored in a Season with 186.

The defensive line proved to be a powerhouse as well, holding teams to 13.6 points per game. Houston, a standout on defense, led the team in tackles and sacks. Other senior standouts on defense included Jamie Hirbour, Justin Sullivan, Peter Martin, and Tim Whalen.

The coaching staff consisted of 2nd Year Head Coach Scott Boyle, Offensive Line Coach Kevin Slattery, Linebacker Coach Dave Slattery, Wide Receiver Coach Jeff Moore, and Running Back Coach George Scannell. Coach Boyle was named The Lowell Sun MVC Coach of the Year.

What do you think contributed most in having such a successful season?

"...The fact we had 20 of 22 starters that were seniors. We had a lot of team chemistry because of that..."

Matt Dion

"...I think it was because of all the hard work during the summer, lifting weights and running..."

Dan Kelleher

"...I think the coaches made the difference. They did a great job preparing us for teams by watching films and running the opponents offense and defense during practice..."

Girls Soccer Suffers Through Tough Losses

Rebuilding Year

Under the direction of first year head coach Tom Button, the girls soccer team achieved a better grasp of playing soccer beyond the recreational level. They began on what will be the momentum they need to compete in the MVC in years to come.

Standouts for the year were Katherine Kennedy, Tricia Tobin, and Michelle Pinto. All of whom appeared in the MVC All Star game November 1.

Receiving awards from Coach Button were Most Improved Tricia Tobin, Coaches Award Erin Draper, Sportsmanship Leanne Sanberg, and Most Valuable Player Katherine Kennedy.

In regard to his first varsity coaching experience, Coach Button remarked "... a great experience. The girls were excellent in their attitude to learn and succeed to a higher level of play."

Program in Progress

Exciting, Competitive Matches

The 1998 Girls Volleyball Team had many younger, less experienced players dominating the starting line up. Varsity was competitive with top MVC teams despite its' youth and "program in progress" status. The team record, 7 - 13, does not reflect the hard fought battles on the floor.

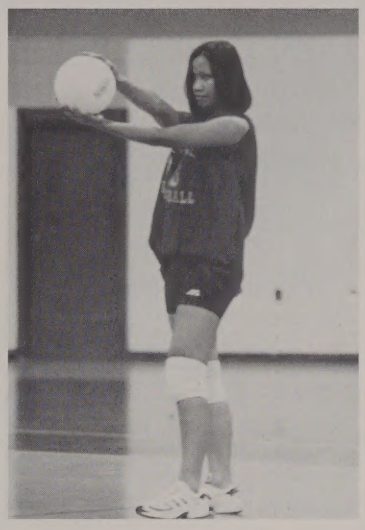
Susie Sawyer was named MVC Small School All-Star Defensive Player. Ashley Cote was also awarded MVC Small School All-Star Blocker status.

Team awards received at the FLHS Banquet included Most Improved Player Ashley Cote, Coaches Award Kristine Jaskal, and Most Valuable Player Susie Sawyer.

The JV Team finished its' season 9 - 10 under the direction of first year Coach Lorrinda Collucci. Estrella Kuilan received the Most Valuable Player award. Meghan Keefe was voted an All-Star. Both girls moved up to play for the Varsity Team as Freshman.

ON THE GROUN
Passing the ball, Ashley Cote (29) g down to the ground as Raksmey (19) tries to assist her teammate.

DON'T TOUCH THE NET Making a play at the net, Senior Captain Erin Barry comes a bit close to the net to keep the play alive for the Lady Red Raiders.



EYE ON THE BALL Concentrating on the serve, Kimly Sroy begins her service on the opposing team.

IN THE WINGS Waiting in the wings, Ashley Cote (29) prepares as Raksmey Im (19) passes the ball. Chanda Ouk (6) looks to see whether the pass will come her way.

Returning Swimmers Upgrade Time

Improved Team Spirit

The win-loss record remained the same as 1997, but the girls swim team improved considerably with respect to overall team feeling, spirit, and commitment. They managed to beat a team, Metheun, who was considered the favorite.

All returning swimmers improved their times in at least one event. Having to replace three of the starting divers who graduated seemed nearly impossible; at the first meet no one could perform the six required dives to compete. As a result of hard work by diving coach Manny Vagos and the new divers, by the end of the season four divers were competing.

A new assistant coach, Kerrie Hodges, was effective in helping the girls with stroke technique and mental toughness. Commenting on the season Coach Roseanne Riddick stated "the girls were more loyal to the team and more in tune with its' goals."

First Tournament Appearance in Six Years

Running to Win

Facing a tough schedule, MVC proved to be the toughest conference in the state. Of the 11 teams, 5 qualified for post-season action.

Playing in the Greater Lowell Holiday Tournament, sponsored by the IAABO, Lowell finished third. After beating West Roxbury at the Tsongas Arena, Lowell lost a heartbreaker in the final seconds to seventh ranked, Westford Academy. In the consolation round, they handily outplayed Dracut.

One of the most exciting games was the double over-time loss at Andover; this sparked an urge to win. A rematch at home, Lowell dominated the court as they defeated Andover to clinch a State Tournament berth for the first time in six years. Lowell lost three games at the buzzer and brought home big wins over Andover, Chelmsford, and Haverhill throughout the season.

Lowell faced South Boston in round one and came out on top after struggling in the second half. William Pena came off the bench to shoot four 3-pointers and a team high 23 points. Central Catholic proved to be the end of the road for LHS' tournament appearance as they lost to the Raiders for the third time this season.

With an area-high 123 goals, Lowell was led by MVC/DCL stars Brian Ingram, George Huggins, Mike Borges, Paul Descheneaux, Paul Feeney, and Chris McKiel; junior goaltender Matt Ralls was also outstanding.

Handing Dracut their only league loss in four years, the team finished the regular season undefeated in the last 10 games. After a first round bye, they faced Westford in the 2nd round of the State Tournament at the Tully Forum. Trailing 2-0 throughout the game, Lowell scored it's only goal in the final minutes completing a highly successful season under the direction of Coach "Beaver" Robinson.

SENIORS Bill Bukala, Dan Tobin, and Chris Brown played four years for the Red Raiders as they worked to rebuild the hockey program.

Division 2 Champions

Gymnasts Break Several Records

With doubts about even having a team in early November looming, the LHS Gymnastics team came full circle earning the Division 2 MVC Championship title for the first time in several years.

A major accomplishment under the guidance of Coach Reggie Walker, the team competed in Monday night meets at LHS for the first time ever.

Just into the season, the original meet record of 120.60 was broken with a team score of 125.35 to take their first win over Dracut for the first time in 14 years. Defeating Billerica in a tri-meet, Lowell again topped their team score with a 128.30. Outstanding performances were contributed by Sam Hor and Kate Koumantzelis.

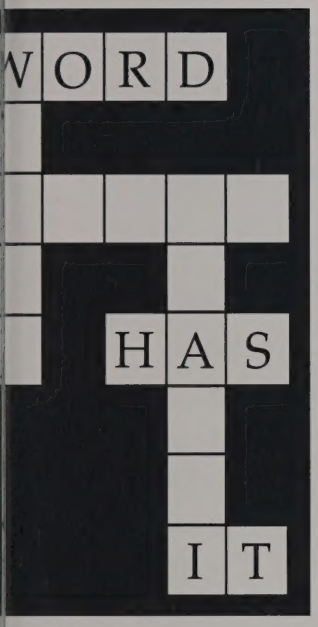
Face the Facts



Finding sponsors to advertise in the 1999 Spindle Yearbook was a different experience. As a student, asking for donations is always awkward; being nervous and shy made it even more difficult. Speaking to owners and managers of various stores went well. We would like to thank all of our sponsors who helped us out. We are glad we had this opportunity to meet with various business owners in our local area and let them know how often students frequent their business. Please support our sponsors.

SMART, ALEC
Originality and time spent were the characteristics for building a mini-float. National Honor Society members get into the action with their "Smarties" display.

DRUMMING AWAY
Stepping out for individual performances as well as a group demonstration, the Drum Line played to an estatic crowd. Another major source of entertainment for the 3000+ crowd!

Spirit Week Festivities
Clash & Dash/Jungle/Red & Grey

To start off Spirit Week, students wore the worst possible combination of colors and prints from head to toe. Classes competed against each other during the Clash & Dash Olympic Games. Throughout the event, a variety of relay games were held. As usual, the seniors WON!

Tuesday found us dressing up in animal spots and stripes, flowered shirts and safari hats for Jungle Day. Couples danced to music for the Twist, Swing, House, Break, Chicken, and Salsa/Merengue. The Break dancers took the house down!

"I thought the swing dancers did really well, but the breakers were remarkable," exclaimed Jessica Shephard.

Red & Grey Day included a pep rally featuring the State Champion "High 5" Cheerleaders and the Drum Line.

The mini-float parade featured many entries including ILC World of Difference, Student Council Adopt a Planter, Fine Arts Free at Last Statute of Liberty, Homer Simpson, and Little Shop of Horrors "Audrey II." ID Badges and the 1999 Spindle were showcased as well as Y2Kaos, M & M - 1 = 1999, and the Smarties, and 20's-90's decades dress.

"Everyone was so creative with the floats," said Vuoch Kim.

Tiffany Perry commented, "It was good to see some change but even better to keep a little bit of tradition. I truly enjoyed my last spirit week to the absolute fullest!"

MILLENIUM MINUS ONE
Senior Class Officers stand with the official candy of the new millenium. Balloons, books, and stuffing are just some of the items used to put these simple floats together.

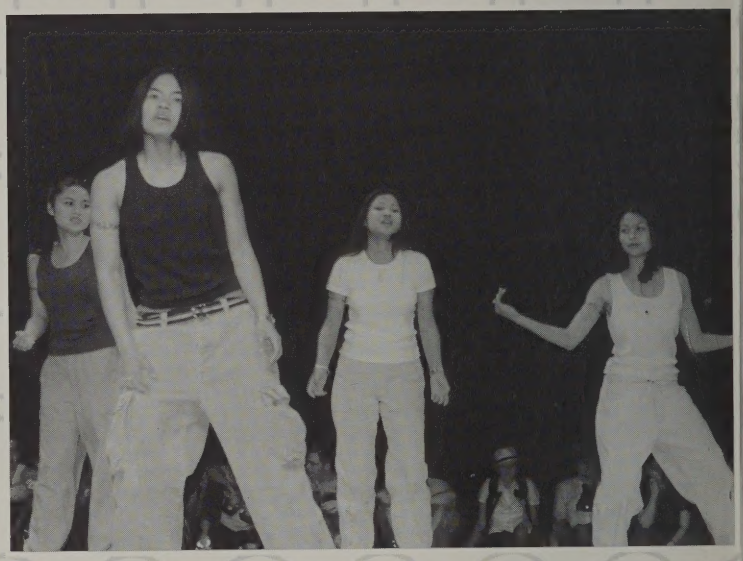
SENIORS SHINE
Prior to competing the senior clash and dashers wait for Mrs. Fineman's instructions. Events included synchronized marching, rat sweep, clumsy waiter, and skateboard slide.

RAPPER'S DELIGHT

The Disco Dancing Quartet of Cheryl Vigeant, Virginia Sotirakos, Crystal Garcia, and Gillian Nolan broke out the 70's outfits and the afro wigs for their number in the Lip Sync Contest.

ROUGH RIDERS

With a packed house, loud music, and plenty of girls, these rough riders get ready to take the dance floor.



Formerly Dress Up Day, a new title of "Glam Day" brought out all the beauties and beaus for the Mr & Ms LHS contest. With soft music playing in the Irish Auditorium, juniors & seniors paraded down the red carpet.

Each contestant introduced themself and answered a question to the audiences' delight. Finally a dance display was captured and students voted for their favorite contestant with applause. "The Lady in Red" Samnang Kong captured the Ms LHS title, while Dan Hall out lasted Josh Buczynski for the applause of Mr LHS.

Squad 16 Mobile Video Dance provided the entertainment for the Spirit Week Dance. Electrical difficulties in the gymnsaium forced the show to be held in the cafe.

Decades Day was the backdrop for the weeks' funniest event, the Lip Sync contest.

"I don't think I laughed so hard in a long time, I wore a poodle skirt to school," commented Kara Sargent.

Students dressed in anything from leather jackets to leg warmers. Groups performed to their choice of music.

"Friday was the best spirit week activity I had ever seen in my entire four years at LHS," proclaimed an impressed Melissa Deignan.

With a variety of events planned by Student Government, fun was had by everyone!

...The Fun Continues Glam/Decade

TOTALLY LATE

Dancing and singing to "If you want me," lead singer Pichchinda Duong grooves with background dancers Vouch Kim, Chhoeun Dem, and Champa Pang.

GIRLS NIGHT OUT

Strutting their stuff and sweating it out on the dance floor Laura Grimshaw, Rosheen McGrail, Andrea Fagundes, Blair McNulty, Rebecca Richardson, Alicia Grand, and Angie Quintero take a breather.

VIDEO DANCE JAM

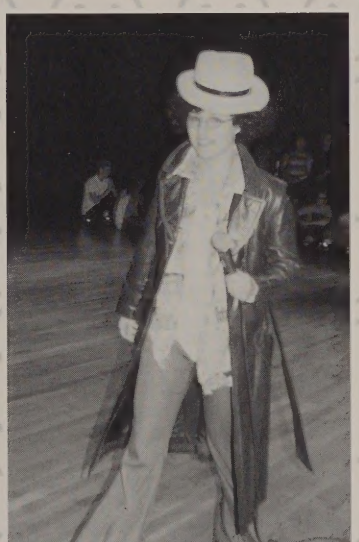
MR & MS L H S

Strolling across the stage to the cheers of their adoring fans, Dan Hall and Samnang Kong (below) beat out the competition (left) to be crowned Mr & Ms LHS on Glamour Day.



THE RIGHT STUFF

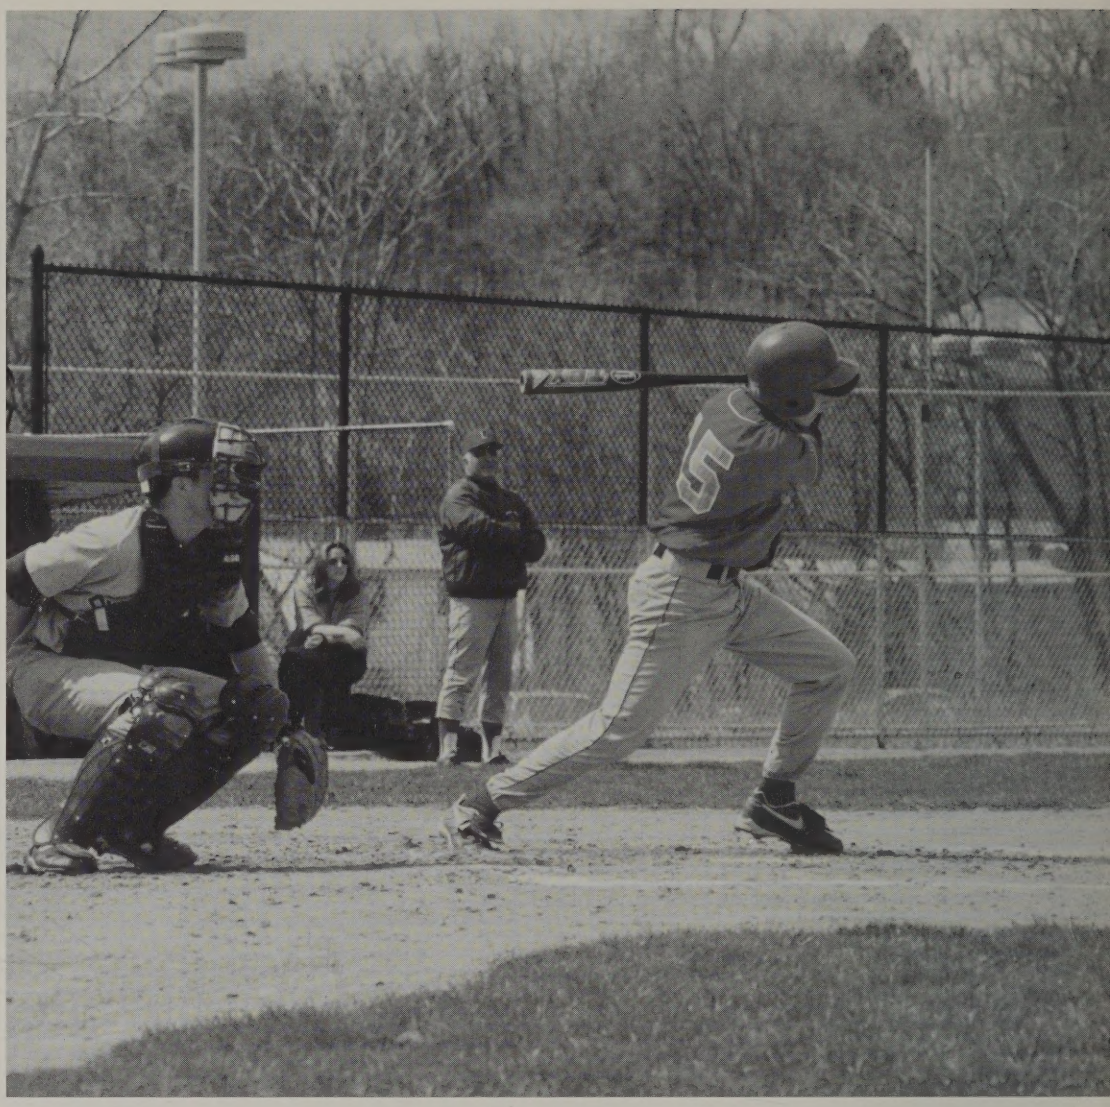
DOUBLE CROSS

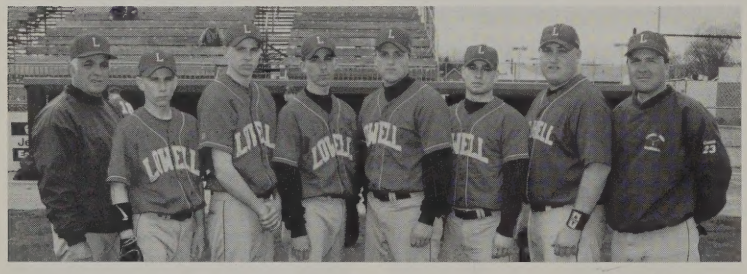
Singing the smash hit "Jump" by Kris Kross, Dan Hall croons for the audience. Dan and Jimmy Mailea were cheered on as the winners of the 1st Annual Lip Sync Contest.

OUT OF THE BOX
Clean up batter Steve O'Brien shatters the ball into right field. Steve played second base and was an MVC All Star selection. He also received the FLHS Coaches Award.

Cunha Hits 300

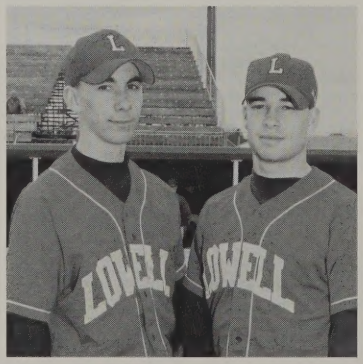
After a 4-1 start, the team began to slow down. Considering the team had many young players, it was a bit surprising to make it into the state tournament. Beating Haverhill in a 3-0 victory that went into extra innings put the team up with 10 wins. Sweeping both games against Andover led the team into a strong fight with Chelmsford at the MVC Weekend "Under the Lights" at LeLacheur Park. After 22 years as Head Coach, George Cunha captured his 300th win. The team played Beverly in the preliminary round to move to the State Tournament first round extra-inning game versus Boston Latin. Meeting Andover for the third time proved tough for the Raiders to overcome as they were defeated in the Quarterfinals.



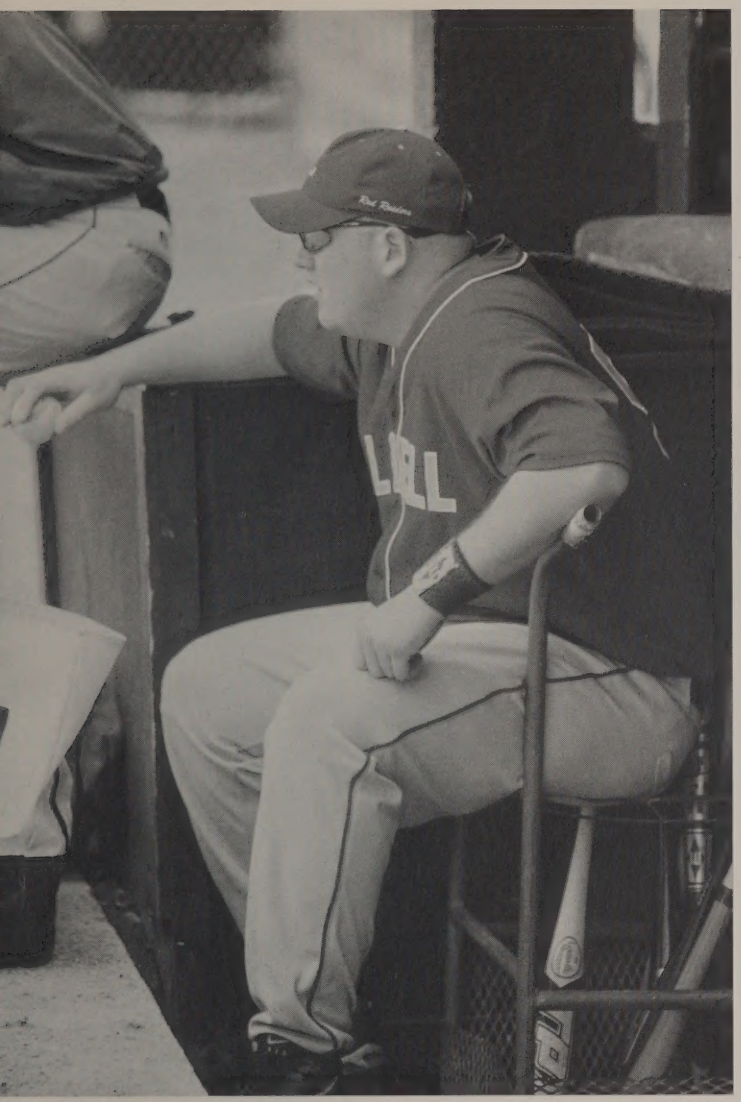


SENIOR STRENGTH
Leading the way for the Red Raiders, Head Coach George Cunha, Steve Cenik, Kevin Richardson, Steve O'Brien, Richie Jeffers, Adam Michaud, Tom Thornton, and Assistant Coach Dickie O'Loughlin.

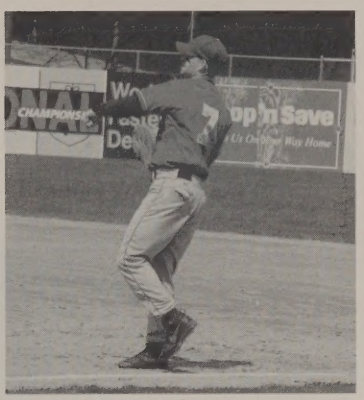
LEADERS ON/OFF THE FIELD
Serving as team captains were Steve O'Brien and Adam Michaud.



COACHING ADVICE
Part of LHS tradition, Coach George Cunha talks to batter Jimmy Mailea before his at-bat.



AN EYE ON THE GAME Watching from the sidelines, Tom Thornton examines every pitch in anticipation for his at bat.



BACK TO THE PITCHER Fielding the ball, Adam Michaud contributed at first base as well as on the mound. Adam was named MVC All Conference, as well as his second year as an MVC All Star. He received the FLHS MVP Award as well.

UNLOADING POWER Taking the pitch from Billerica, Steve Cenik cracks the ball off the end of the bat, grounding a single up the middle.

Crew

The 1998-1999 Crew season started off with running, lifting, and getting ready for events. Participating in only two events in the Fall, members practiced technique and endurance as they awaited the Spring season.

A major highlight of the Spring season was when the Varsity Girls Eight Team placed second in the Boston Spring Regatta; receiving medals for their effort. Practices consisted of a five mile run (Bridge-to-Bridge), light lifting, rowing 4,000 meters on an erg machine, running hill sprints, conditioning body circuits, and rowing on the water. With the help of Head Coach William McGowan, and his assistants Jeff, Brian, and Season, we realized rowing takes concentration, commitment, and endurance.

PULL HARD
Racing against each other, the girls' eight (outside boat) takes the lead along the river versus the boys' eight boat.

FREVA GET DOWN!!!
Relaxing before the Phillips Academy race, Meredith Brouillard attacks an unsuspecting Melissa Hebert. Fun and games always helped ease the seriousness before an event.

IT'S ALL TIMING
Moving as one takes time, patience, and tons of practice. The boys eight spent A LOT of time perfecting the technique.

The girls fall eight led by the coxen prepare to shove from the dock and begin their long, arduous journey upon the water.

VARSITY LACROSSE

Making it to States!

Experienced Coaching Staff Leads Team

Considering this was the first ever, full varsity season, it was a very successful one. The team, coached by Kevin Bibeau and assisted by Chris Coppi, were led by leading scorer Sing Phetvixay (34 goals, 10 assists). The mid-fielders were led by Captain Andrew Gilmore, Tim Whalen, Peter Martin, and Ron McCarron. The defense was led by Captain Chris Espinola. Chris had a great season leading the defense, which kept many teams from dominating the game.

"The greatest accomplishment was coming in third in scoring in the independent league," said Sing Phetvixay.

"The best thing for me was having the team go 11-3 in its' first full varsity season" commented Tim Whalen, who was sidelined with a wrist injury at the end of the regular season.

"This season was dedicated to our coach, Kevin Bibeau, who left an established Burlington program to coach a bunch of unskilled players from Lowell to lead them to a state tournament appearance" exclaimed several varsity players.

Coach Bibeau stated it simply, "I am incredibly proud of this team...I had hoped to be 7-7...being undefeated thru the first 5 games was unbelievable!"

TIRELESS COMPETITO
Carrying the ball down field, Sin Phetvixay goes in for a goal. Leadin the team in goals, Sing captured th FLHS Most Valuable Player Award

MOVING TO THE LEFT
Quickly moving to the left, Peter Martin maneuvers past two defenders to move down field.

FACEOFF
Mid field faceoffs start a game and are used after a goal is scored. Both players fight for possession of the ball.

HE SHOOTS, HE SCORES
Making the goaltender work hard is the job of Bill Bukala as he goes in for a goal. With no defender in sight, the goalie has no help to fend off the attacker.

QUICK ON HIS FEET
Senior Tri-Captain Bill Bukala runs away from the Matignon defender. A hardworker, Bill earned the respect of coach Kevin Bibeau.

PASSING DOWN FIELD
Getting through the defenders, Lowell Raiders kept the competition on their toes, moving quickly down field.

RESTING ON THE SIDELINES
Taking a breather from the game, Bill Bukala, Chris Espinola, and Andrew Gilmore served as captains of the team. Bill earned the FLHS Coaches Award while Andrew received the FLHS Most Improved Player Award for their hard work and tireless effort.

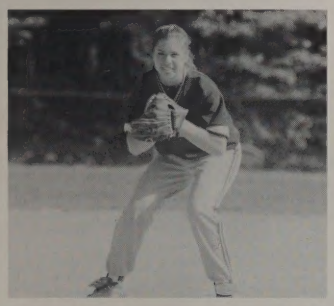
LOOKING TO WIN
MVC All Conference second base player, Katie Rodger looks on as Lowell begins their at bats.

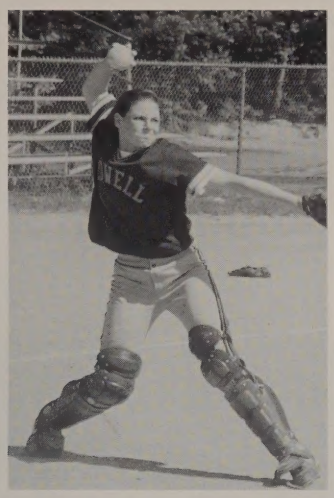
THE BIG HITTER
MVC All Star Sophomore Tabitha Hebert (below) contributed big at the plate. Tabitha was the first to hit a homerun out of Martin Field. Senior Susie Sawyer (right) takes her turn at the plate.

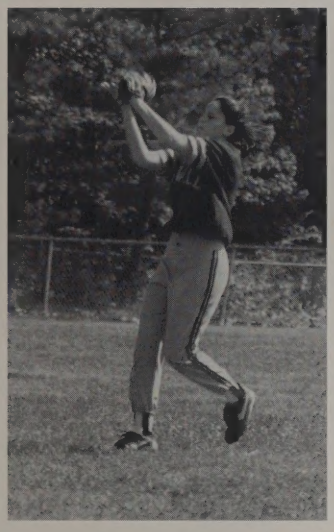
GIRLS JUST WANT TO HAVE FUN
Having fun at home Tara Stronach, Kara Sargent, Casey Burgett, Susie Sawyer, Erin Barry, Laura Ninteau, and Katie Rodger enjoy the remainder of their last softball season.

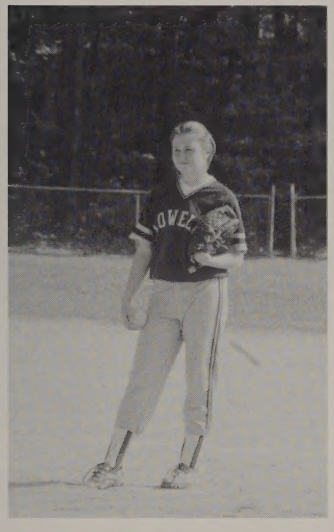
HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE
Playing for the second year at Martin Field, the team enjoyed their somewhat new surroundings.

AROUND THE DIAMOND
Laura Ninteau guards third; Kristen Ierardi makes a running outfield catch; Kara Sargent prepares to pitch; and catcher Casey Burgett throws the runner out at second.









Team Sees Third Round Tournament Action

Sarge Leads the Charge

Limiting the Acton-Boxboro team to just 6 hits wasn't enough for Kara Sargent to improve her season record to 14 wins. The Colonials proved to be the final team the Red Raiders would meet in the Division 1 North Quarterfinals. Finishing with a 13-10 record, the team fought a 13 inning game versus top-seeded Reading just two days prior. Lowell began their tournament activities with a 1 - 0 win over Beverly.

Coach Rick O'Brien commented, "We were 2 - 7 at one point and we made it to the North Quarterfinals; very impressive for a group of hard working players."

Leading the team, battery Kara Sargent and Casey Burgett were among 4 players to be named to the MVC All Star team. Tabitha Hebert and Katie Rodger also attributed to the teams' success. Kara and Katie were also MVC All Conference standouts.

All 7 seniors will attend college in the fall. The Mary Mullin award for Excellence in Academics and Athletics was presented to Erin Barry. Receiving the FLHS Coaches Award was Laura Ninteau, FLHS Most Improved Player award was Susie Sawyer and Kara Sargent was named Most Valuable Player for her outstanding efforts on the mound.

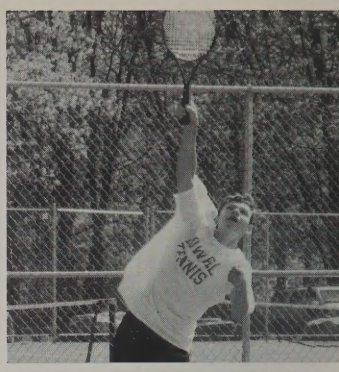
Great Memories Outweigh Tough Losses

The Boys Tennis team finished their season with a record of 6 - 8. Coach Mike DeVicenzi commented that the team "tried their hardest." Match highlights included close matches with Central Catholic and Chelmsford.

Second in the MVC

The Girls Tennis team completed another successful season under MVC Coach of the Year Jennifer Carey. Finishing 16 - 3, the Lady Red Raiders met Newton South in the first round of the state tournament. Several players were awarded MVC All Star status as well as All Conference players.

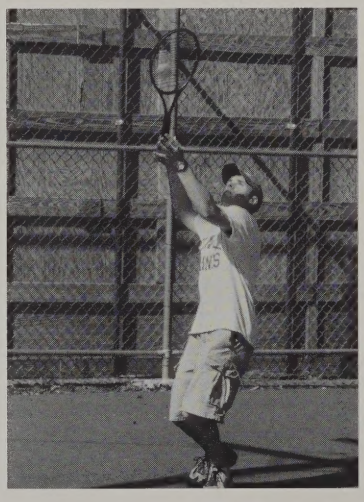
First Singles player, Nicole Rodger played her toughest match in the state tournament; 4 hours in the grueling heat.



REACHING FOR THE STARS Reaching for a high ball, Joe Sargent returns the ball from the baseline. Joe was credited with clutch wins. He received the FLHS Coaches Award.

SERVING IT UP Serving the ball, Alexandra Maraganis played doubles with Eileen Cohn.

LOOKING FOR AN ACE Serving, second singles Dan Tobin was also a team captain.



BOUNCING ALONG First Singles MVP Nicole Rodger (above) returns from the baseline, while Jill Lang (right) returns with a forehand.

Individual Event State Champions

Boys/Girls Track & Field

Not only did senior Sem Sok become the MVC Triple Jump Champion and All Conference athlete, but he captured the Class A State Champion Title. Smooth finished 2nd in the High Hurdles in the State meet as well. A MVC Division 1 All Star in the 110 Hurdles, Smooth placed 3rd in the State Decathlon (school record).

Angela Bradley set a new record for the Discus only to have it broken by teammate Tatenda Chinduongo who placed 3rd in the MVC and 1st in the State Tournament. Tatenda received the FLHS Most Improved Player Award.

Junior Mo Molai missed the state final Triple Jump by one inch while Gina Brunelas was runner up in the state meet in the Javelin; her only loss of the year. Mo received the FLHS Most Improved Player, while Gina was awarded FLHS Most Valuable Player.

Freshman Jeff Mahan set the school record for the High Hurdles, and Nancy Stronach qualified for the state tournament in the Mile. Nancy & Jeff both received the FLHS Sportsmanship Award.

Receiving the FLHS Coaches Awards for their teams were Pat Morasse, David Silva, Matt Theodoros, Alyssa McNeil, and Kate Smulligan.

Senior Dan Malavich was the MVC Division 1 All Star in the Shot Put and placed 3rd in the Class A Championships. Junior Raunny Rosario placed 6th in the Long Jump in the Class A State Meet.

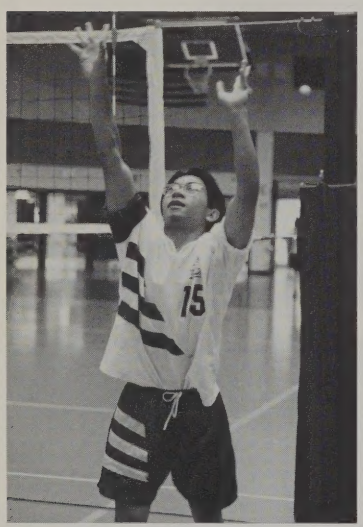
A Year in Review

The Boys Volleyball team completed another successful year under the direction of Head Coach Thar Soth and Assistant Paul McCarthy. In a playoff match for the state tournament, Lowell met Methuen for the third time (1-1 prior). As luck would have it, Lowell won the match 4-2. Only to face powerhouse St. John's Prep for the third time (0-2). The third time was not the charm as Lowell fell, capping off a great year.

CELEBRATING A VICTORY
Teammates congratulate each other, as Lowell celebrates its' first tournament victory over Metheun at the Riddick Fieldhouse.

SET UP FOR A SPIKE
Known as the setter, Bunthy Pal prepares the ball for a spike over the net.



ALL SMILES
Serving as team captains, James Marcotte and Matt Leclair led the team on and off the court. Jim received the FLHS Most Valuable Player Award, and Matter received the FLHS Coaches Award.

DIVING INTO ACTION
Getting into the action, Vouth Poeung dives to keep the ball in play. Vouth was all over the floor during the Methuen game.

SIDELINE CHEER
Rallied and ready to go, Red Raiders start each game with a high five looking for a victory.

GAME PLAN
On the court, the team huddles to go over their offensive and defensive plans.

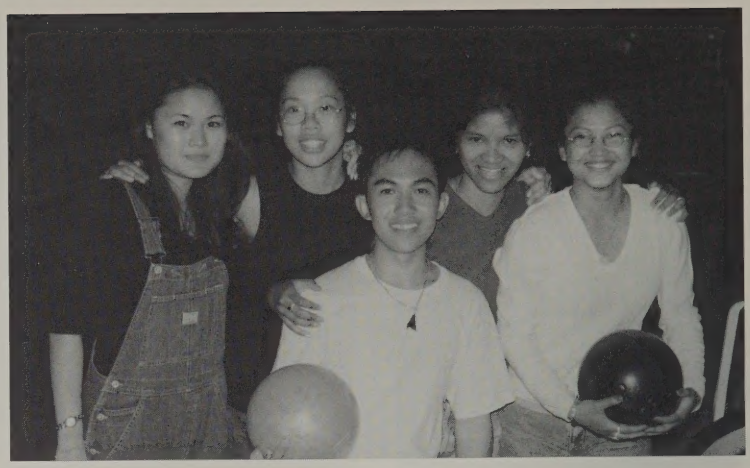
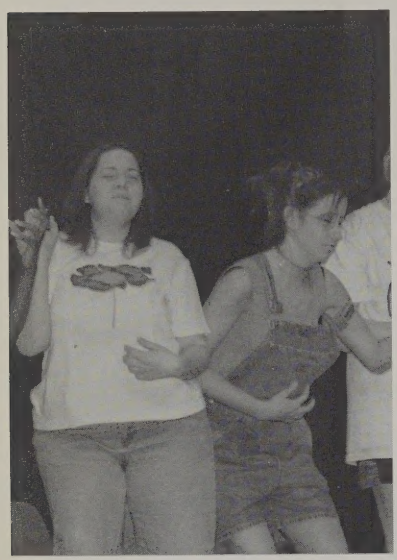
Senior Week Fun in the Sun

S T R I K E ! ! !
Cosmic Bowling took up most of the Thursday afternoon festivities during Senior Week. This group prepares to let it rip down the alley.



THREE HOUR TOUR
Under a partly cloudy sky, seniors traveled down to Boston's pier for an excursion to George's Island on Friday morning.

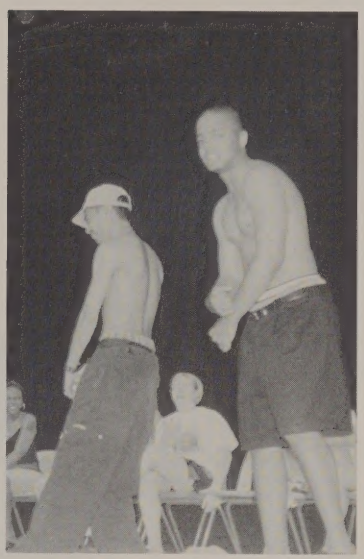
UNDER A SPELL
Using their favorite air guitar Nichole Gendron and Gillian Nolan rock to the tunes at the Comedy Hypnosis on Wednesday.



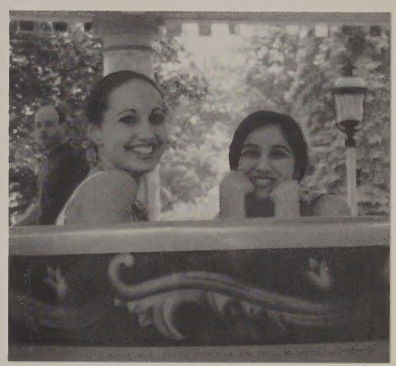
BRAVING THE RIDE
Taking the challenge, seniors made their way thru Canobie Lake on Tuesday, June 1. Jim Marcotte, Tim Lewis, Tom Thornton, Jay Lepine, Matt Dion and Kevin Owens brave the Caterpillar.

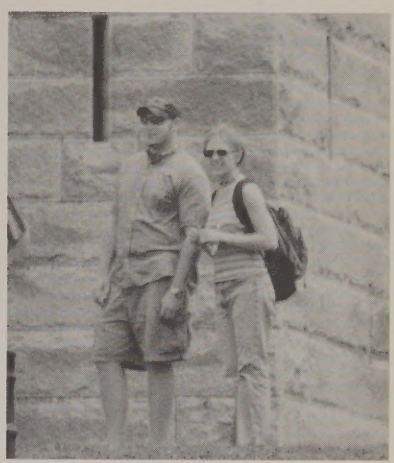
SENIOR BREAKFAST
After enjoying donuts, bagels, yogart and fruit salad, seniors got down to business looking thru and signing the 1999 Spindle. Kagna Duong balances her mug and cd while trying to sign a book.

GATHERING IN THE FORTS
Wind kept this group cool while they toured the forts at George's Island. After a short 30 minute boat ride, students ate lunch, played ball, and walked around the island.



MORE FUN THRU THE WEEK
Whether you saw the comedy hypnosis, took a ride at Canobie, or walked around the island, the weather was perfect; blue skies, light breeze and sun!





THE BOSTON TEA PARTY
Soaked to the bone, Melissa Ilg and Jessica Stepney prepare for another ride on the popular water ride. A perfect day, it was hot and the girls were dry in no time.

HEY LOOK, IT'S ME
Besides having friends sign your yearbook, students took the time to look thru it for their picture. Breakfast never tasted so good.

Taking Responsibility for the Future

Graduation Day arrived with a slight breeze and a partly cloudy sky. Showers threatened all day, but after receiving caps & gowns in homeroom, the Class of 1999 headed over to the Tsongas Arena for practice. After a cookout behind the arena, students began arriving for the ceremony at 6 p.m. Maroon gowns waited anxiously with family and friends outside the arena prior to lining up. Mayor Eileen Donoghue led the procession with the school committee, administrators and faculty into the arena. C & D House began the march with E, A, & B Houses following. Carney Medals were awarded to the top three male and female students. Katherine Provencher, Erin Barry, and Kaitlyn Ryder received the distinguished honor, with Salutatorian James Rising, Saurabh Calla, and Valedictorian Karam Saab. Student Government and Class Officers were seated on stage. Graduate David Robbins sang the National Anthem and the A Capella Choir sang two songs.
